BLACK AND GOLD

INTRODUCTION

As the school year draws to a close we leave as a souvenir of our school activities the Black and Gold of "26."

In this volume we have earnestly striven to present to you the history of our past school years. Doubtless, many errors have crept in which we would have liked to avoid, but we hope that we have succeeded in our greatest desire, that of making this book worthy of our school and the Class of "26"; and one which will recall old and pleasant memories in years to come of the happy friendships made here.

PERRYSBURG HIGH

DEDICATION

We dedicate this Black and Gold
To the school we love so well,
Whose name shall never be disgraced,
Whose mark shall never be erased;
Its fame to the greatest heights shall soar
And there remain for evermore.

The Prince of Principals

Never has there been in the history of Perrysburg High School an instructor more interested in the progress of the school and its pupils, or more forgetful of self in the advancement of his charges. He is loved by all that know him, and his friends are legion. May the school be blessed with his wise and judicious advice for years to come.

HISTORICAL PERRYSBURG

Perrysburg, an historical town of northwestern Ohio, was laid out and incorporated by the government in 1816. It was the scene of many battles and small skirmishes in the War of 1812. Fort Meigs, which lies just west of the town, was built by General Harrison and named after Governor Meigs. It was practically the only barrier which kept the British from invading Ohio and the states south.

Fort Meigs was very small, having a garrison of only about one thousand men. It was besieged twice, but held out each time until help came. The first siege began April 24, 1813, and was raised May 11th. Gen. Proctor, a British general, had twelve hundred regulars and twenty-one hundred Indians under his command at that time. On May 3rd, Proctor demanded the surrender of the fort. Gen. Harrison refused to surrender and held out until Gen. Clay arrived with twelve hundred Kentuckians to relieve him. Gen. Harrison sent Col. Dudley with eight hundred men to spike the British guns on the opposite shore, and then ordered him to retreat. Instead of obeying orders, Dudley pursued the Indians and fell into an ambush, where only one hundred fifty men escaped being massacred.

The second siege began July 20th, when Proctor returned with still larger forces, expecting an easy victory. Clay, who was in command at this time, was not deceived by the strategy of the English, and kept his men inside the fort. The English, unable to capture the fort, left for Fort Stephenson on July 28th. There Proctor was repulsed with heavy losses. This defeat practically ended the war in the northwest.

After the war, the town of Orleans was laid out on the bottom lands between Fort Meigs and the river. In 1816 Perrysburg was incorporated and named after Commodore Perry. The higher elevation and better location caused Perrysburg to grow and Orleans to decline. Now it is impossible to find a trace of the old settlement.

In 1908, a monument was erected at Fort Meigs in honor of those who shed their blood on that sacred ground. This monument is of granite blocks, stands eighty-one feet high, and was erected at a cost of $14,000.

The Fremont Pike now takes the place of the old Indian trail that connected Fort Meigs with Fort Stephenson.

Many Indians lived in the Maumee Valley after the close of the War of 1812, but on June 24, 1838, the last lot, of over eight hundred, was taken to a western reservation. They represented over seven different tribes.

Perrysburg began to grow as soon as it was chartered. A dock and large warehouse were built at the foot of Main St. Several factories were built, most of which were run by water power. There were also several planing mills, tanneries, and a shipyard. Perrysburg was then the industrial center of this section of the country. To meet the demand for supplies, there were a number of dry goods, grocery, hardware, and drug stores. At that time the town was the county seat, and was the most important town in the county. It had several law offices, hotels, doctors, and newspapers.

At first the lake boats plied as far up the river as Perrysburg, but as Toledo grew, with its better location, and the channel began to fill, the boats ceased to run up the river to Perrysburg.

Education in the Maumee Valley dates back before the second war with England. At first the settlers maintained a private school at Miami and later at Fort Meigs. In 1846, a grade school was organized by J. W.

PERRYSBURG HIGH

Ross at the site of the present school house in Perrysburg. There were only four grades and no definite length of school term.

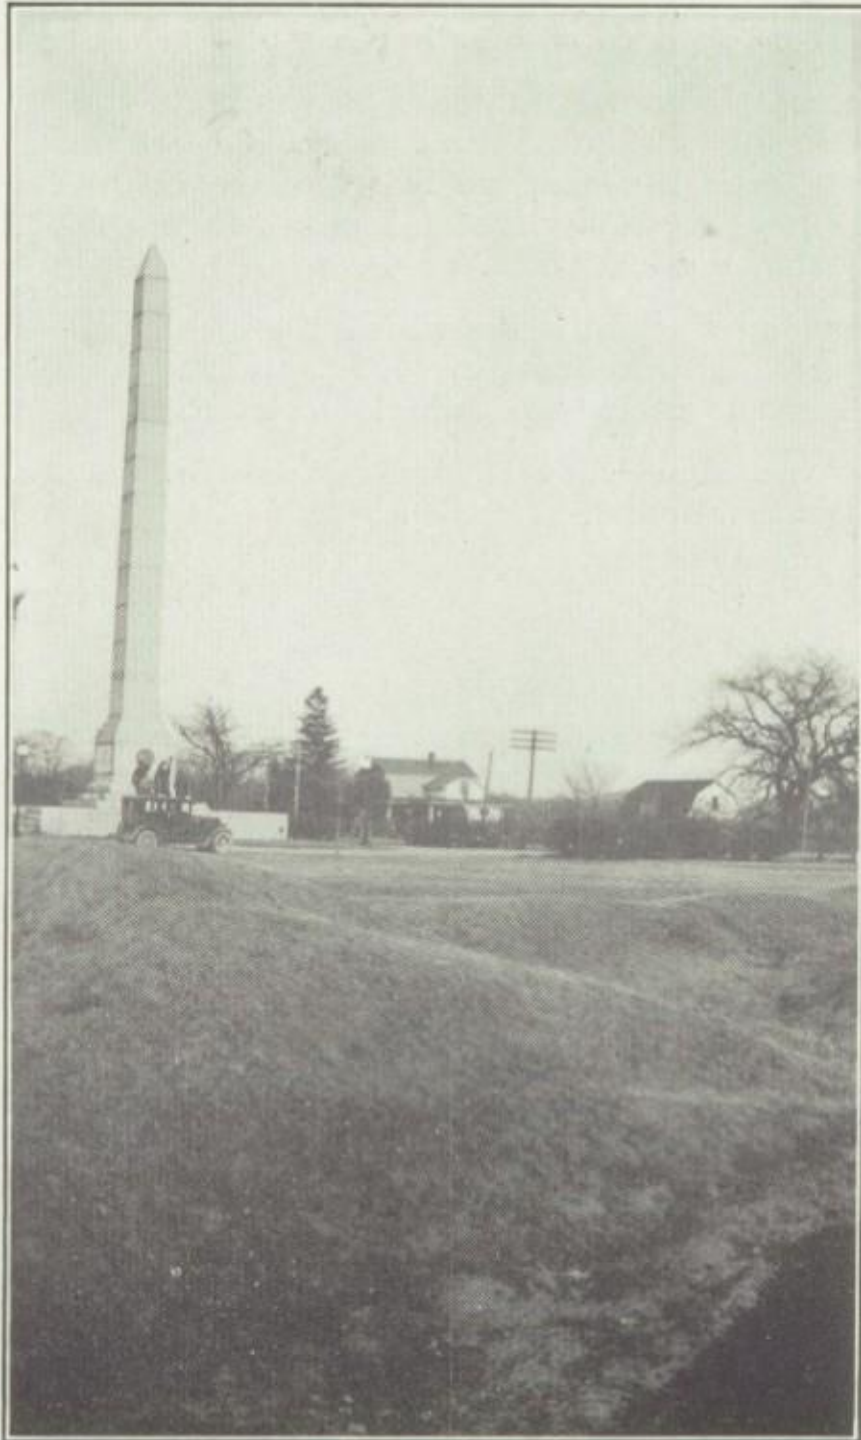

In 1849, A. D. Wright founded a high school in Perrysburg. The first building was described as a large, spacious, brick edifice, 60x90 feet. The faculty consisted of A. D. Wright, superintendent and principal of the high school; E. Olvey, principal of the grammar school; Miss Helen Peck, principal of the secondary school; Miss Mary Jones, principal of the primary school; Mrs. C. J. Wright, teacher of drawing and painting; and Mrs. T. Robertson, teacher of pianoforte.

At that time the high school curricula included: algebra, geometry, surveying, orthography, elocution, rhetoric, mental philosophy, botany, astronomy, chemistry, zoology, physiology, mineralogy, natural philosophy, universal history, moral philosophy, Latin, Greek, bookkeeping, science of government, composition, and declamation. A sufficient course to prepare students for college.

The school house, built in 1849, was enlarged in 1868 and destroyed by fire in 1894. The present building was erected in 1895. In 1915, manual training and domestic science were introduced. When the school was enlarged in 1917, these studies were intensified. The manual training equipment was donated by W. W. Knight, and the appliances for domestic science were given by Miss Sally Libbey. The high school library, installed in 1920-21, was principally the gift of Col. George Greenhaugh. Mr. W. S. Walbridge gave a flag staff and colors to the school.

In 1849, the high school had fifty students. In 1916, it had only forty-nine. In 1921, it increased to one hundred forty-two, of which fifty-six were from the country. They were brought in from six different routes by two busses. Now there are four busses bringing in sixty-seven country students. The present high school enrollment is two hundred twelve.

BLACK AND GOLD

The school has grown steadily, and is considered one of the best high schools of its size in the state.

In 1889, V. W. Way left a sum of money from which the interest, amounting to $1,200, is taken every four years to help put one of the high school students through college. The senior class takes a test over all the studies they have taken in their high school career. The three students having the highest grades draw for this scholarship.

The high school has two literary societies, the Athenian and Phi Sigma. There is much friendly rivalry between the two societies. Every spring they hold an inter-society contest consisting of an oration, reading, essay, and a debate.

Perrysburg High School is the only school in this section which belongs to the National Honorary Society. It also belongs to the North Central

PERRYSBURG HIGH

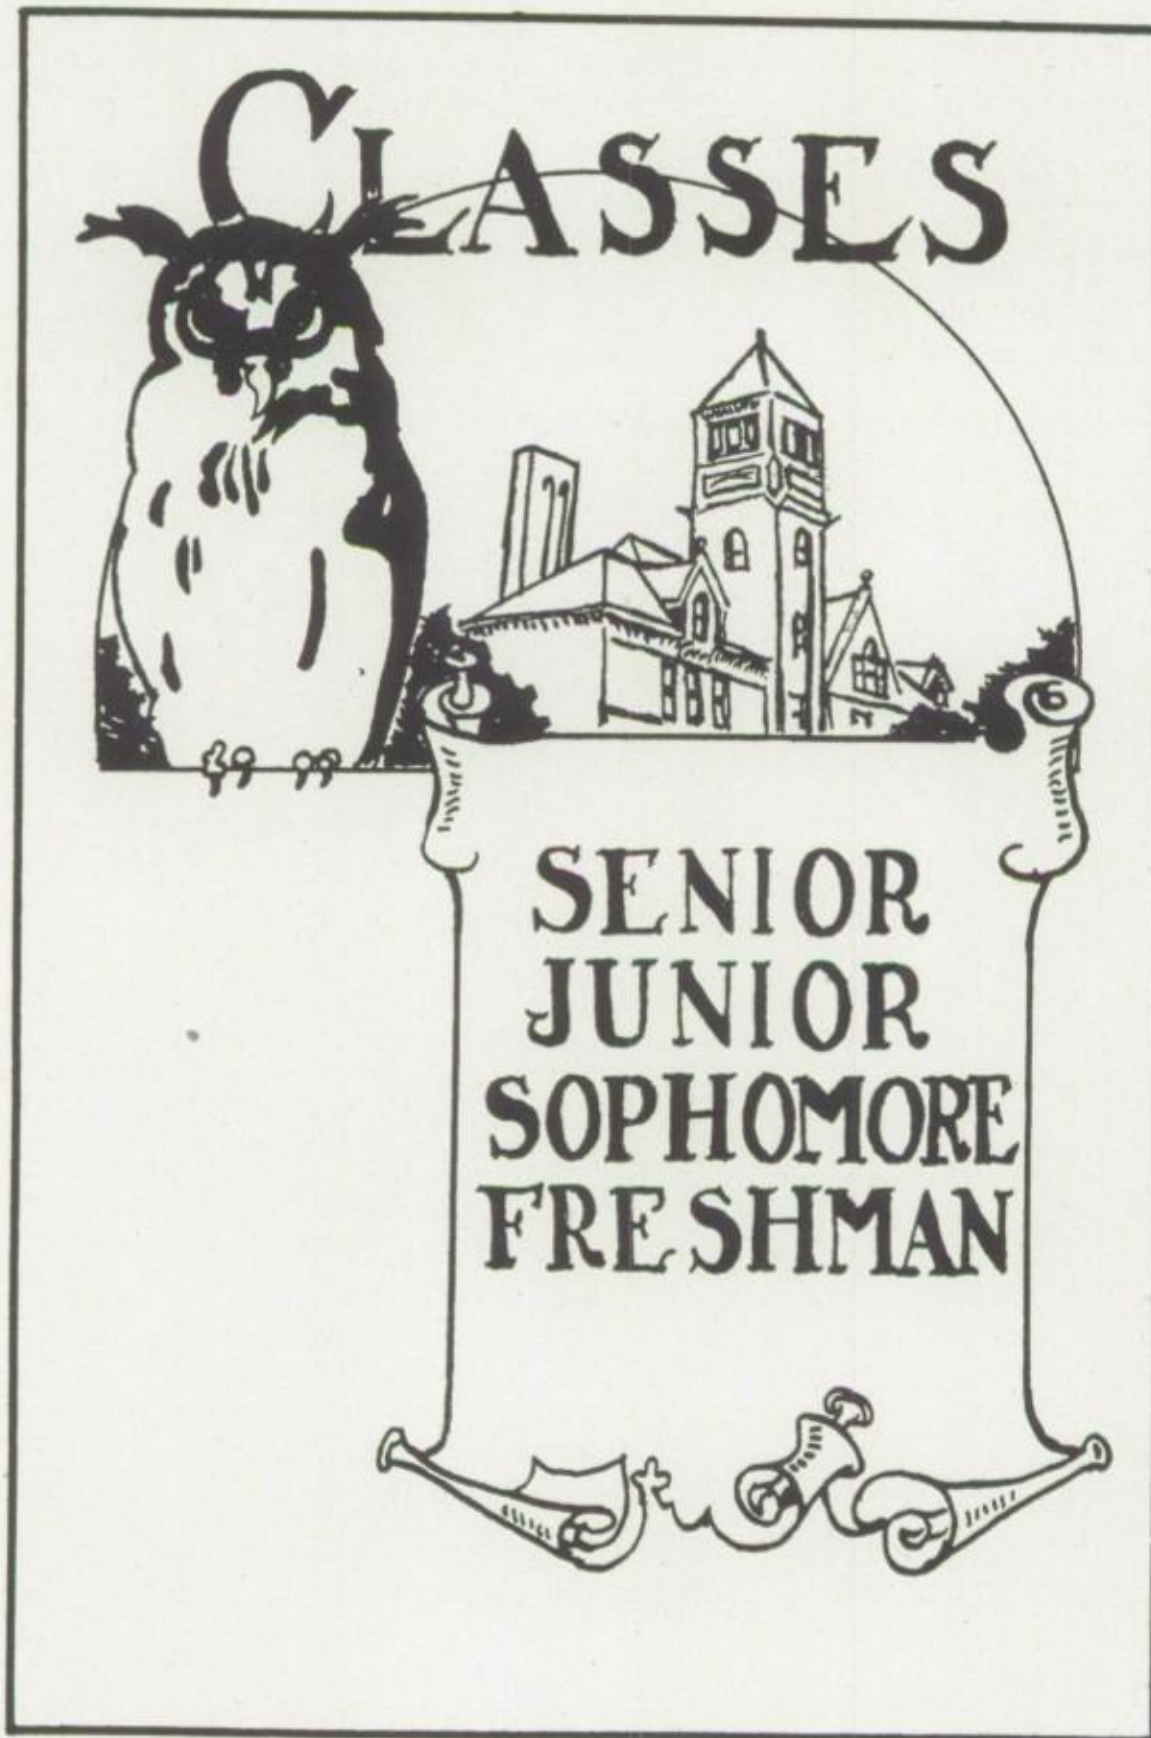

Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. There is no limit to the salary which will be paid to secure the best of teachers.

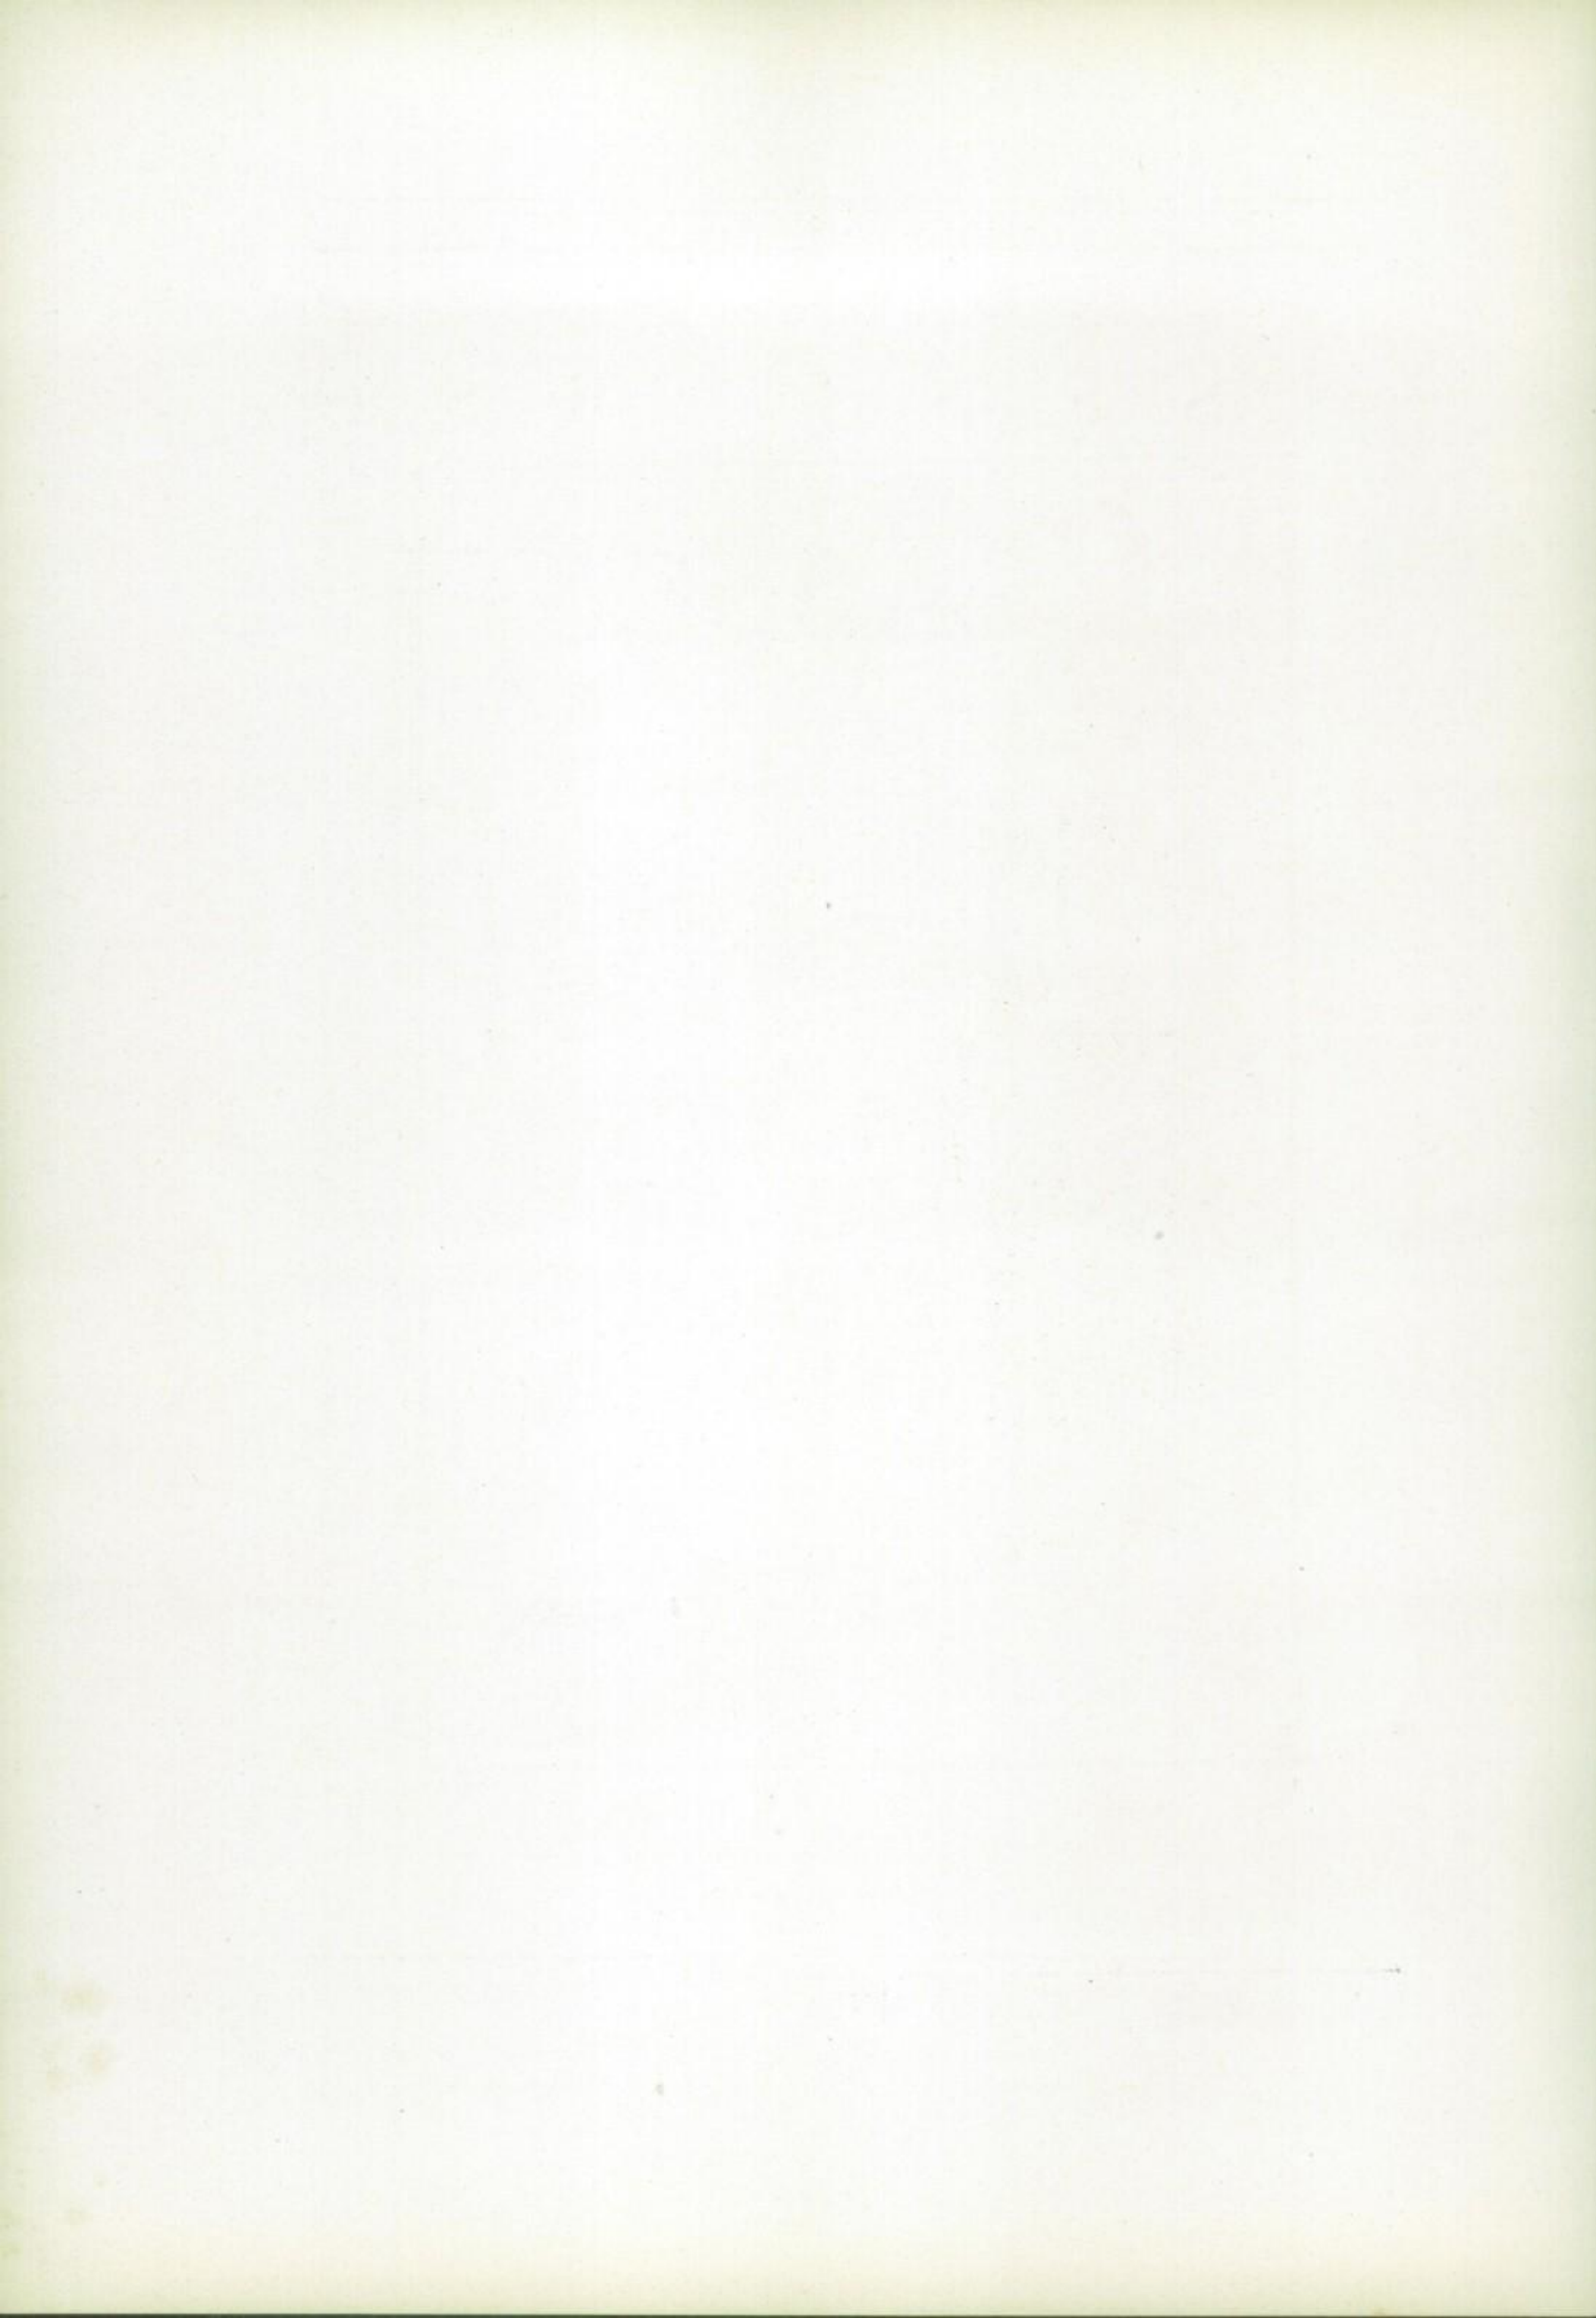

Perrysburg stands high in athletics, having held the Wood county football championship for two out of three years, and has taken the girls' basketball tournament three different years. This year, the boys captured the Maumee Valley League trophy, a large silver loving cup. Perrysburg also leads in literary and musical work, as the pennants she possesses show.

Perrysburg High School is known for its true sportsmanship, fair play, and loyal support. The students are loyal and hard workers as the efforts they have put forth to make this school one of the best have shown.

All in all, the high school has many advantages and good qualities, and possesses but few faults.

GOLDEN MEMORIES

Early in September
On a bright and sunny day,
We entered dear old P. H. S.
To make a long, long stay.

After three long years of labor—
Of hard and faithful toil,
We crossed the joyful Junior gate,
To dwell on Senior soil.

Before we leave you, P. H. S.,
We wish to stand the test,
And prove to you we are sincere,
When we say we love you best.

So, here's to our instructors,
Our fellow-students, too,
We wish you success and happiness,
And now we say, "Adieu."

Senior Honor Roll

The student who has worked consistently and maintained a high standing in scholarship is deserving of honorable mention in the field of "Who's Who."

The senior class has seven students who have maintained an average of ninety per cent or above in the subjects which they pursued during the four years.

The following are the names of the students with their average grade and rank in scholarship:

Howard Sattler	95.7 %
Frederic Leydorf	94.0 %
Bernice Snyder	93.1 %
Frederick Driftmeyer	92.0 %
Ruth Barbour	92.0 %
Helen Zieman	91.8 %
Martha Smith	90.8 %

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER I

In the beginning, during the nineteen hundred and twenty-second year of our Lord, there entered into this Land of Learning seven and sixty earnest seekers of knowledge. These came from various halls of instructions, where for many years they had been storing their minds with the honey of wisdom. This multitude was the 1926 Senior Class of Perrysburg High School.

It came to pass, as we did enter into this land, we were received with malicious glee by a certain band of wild beings called Sophomores; and who, because of their taste for Freshmen torment, did daily torture us unmercifully.

Now it happened that two certain wise men, called Mr. Riggle and Mr. Treese, did rule over this land and commanded us to organize ourselves. We did even as we were told, and did choose from among our numbers the following:

President_____	Frederic Leydorf
Vice-President_____	Paul Weeber
Secretary-Treasurer_____	Robert Beck
Reporter_____	Evelyn Friend

Likewise it came to pass, in the early fall, that we journeyed in quest of pleasure to the country home of Frederic Leydorf, where we enjoyed a most delightful wiener roast.

After we dwelt for many months in this new land, toiling tediously to carry our heavy burden of new subjects satisfactorily, our verdant color disappeared, and we were as one among the rest.

CHAPTER II

Now it came to pass that, at the beginning of our second year, a new band of youths did timidly climb the steps of P. H. S. Our class, remembering the days of its greenness, and as the Sophomores of our days had done unto us, even so did we unto these new Freshmen.

It likewise happened that the selfsame wise men did command us to organize again so that we might gain in strength and courage. As they spoke unto us, so it was done, and we elected:

President_____	Frederick Driftmeyer
Vice-President_____	Martha Loomis
Secretary-Treasurer_____	Raymond Bateman
Reporter_____	Ruth Barbour

Miss O'Brien did counsel the three and fifty full well this year.

As the class did journey through this land, many honors were bestowed upon it. Several of our numbers were on the victorious girls' basketball team at the Bowling Green tournament.

During this year a great portion of our numbers assembled near our

BLACK AND GOLD

Land of Learning and from there did enjoy a sleigh ride to that famous town of Lime City. When the morning dawned, lo and behold, great were the reprimands suffered.

After partaking of the Senior banquet, our Sophomore year did end successfully.

CHAPTER III

Now it was so ordained that the third year of our journey was one spent in much hard labor and with but little resting by the wayside for pleasures. Early in the fall we chose the following:

President.....	Robert Beck
Vice-President.....	Frederick Leydorf
Treasurer.....	Hubert Wideman
Secretary.....	Vera Goeke
Reporter.....	Ruth Barbour

A goodly man, whom men call Mr. Raberding, was our sponsor for the year.

It so happened that we did give a Christmas party, inviting all the other sojourners in this land to attend. And when the guests at last departed from the festivities, they were exceedingly glad that things had been as they were proclaimed, and did give many thanks to the Junior class for the pleasures they had enjoyed.

Our studious attitude gave way to rejoicing for a while when we learned that P. H. S. boys had won the championship in football.

Lo! it came to pass in the spring that a throng of students from the chemistry class did journey to Toledo to behold the marvelous working of the glass factory, filtration plant and blast furnace.

Thus did this class study exceedingly hard this year, and our whole number at the end of our third term was forty.

CHAPTER IV

The fourth and last year in the history of this wonderful class of 1926 has been one of ceaseless, yet joyful, toil. For guidance through our final year we elected:

President.....	Frederick Driftmeyer
Vice-President.....	Howard Sattler
Secretary.....	Vera Goeke
Treasurer.....	Hubert Wideman
Reporter.....	Ruth Barbour

With great zeal did the class produce an illustrious newspaper called "Somethin'" that proclaimed all the news in this great land. Even also was the joyful news published that the Senior class won the Inter-Class Basketball Series.

Now it came to pass, as our pride did grow to such an enormous size, that the class wished for badges signifying their position. Many messengers came from large cities with samples of their fine jewelry and, as last, after much consideration, the class purchased wonderful rings and pins whereon was placed the seal of this Land of Learning.

Now, when Hallowe'en had fully come, the class did give a party for the school and faculty. Merrymaking and laughter prevailed and amid the confusion great shouts did go up from the throats of some Freshmen.

It so happened that the class realized there would be much need of many dollars for graduation purposes. And so, thinking these things, they served many a noon-day meal, and the other students bidden that money might be brought into the treasury and the coffers be filled.

It soon came to pass that the class did set them down that an artist of much skill should make of them a picture of great beauty; but when it was done, and their eyes fell upon that which was said to be a true portrait of them, disgust was upon the faces of some of the Seniors, because the camera failed to find their superb beauty.

Now as this year draws to a close, we bring forth to those who seek enlightenment concerning our habitations in this land.

If only we were Tennysons, we would dedicate our "In Memoriams" to dear old P. H. S.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday evening, May 16, 1926. A play will be given the following Wednesday and Thursday nights. On May 21st, Commencement exercises will be held, with Rev. Lloyd Douglas delivering the class address. Students who are participating in the program will be:

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Having a free afternoon in New York, I attended a concert at the Metropolitan Museum. The leading soloist of the afternoon was my old classmate, Pearl Frazier. After the Concert, I had a few minutes talk with Pearl and she asked me how long I intended to be in town. I told her I expected to be here the rest of the week. She said she had tickets for the theater the next evening and that the head-line attraction on the bill was Camela Arrigo, the famous toe dancer, none other than our former classmate, Ruth Barbour.

Coming back to the Hotel after a shopping tour I had a phone call from Martha Smith, who said she had read in the paper that Governor Emmett Van Wacker and his wife were stopping at the Ritz Carleton for a week before leaving on a world's tour. Martha called me to say "Good-bye" for she was leaving for two years to take charge of a missionary post in far off New Guinea.

The following Monday I left the Governor at the pier to sail on the Leviathan. The first night at dinner I had the honor of being a guest at the Captain's table. I noticed a distinguished looking man at the next table who seemed to be unusually interested in me. I asked the Captain's wife who this stranger was, and she informed me that it was the ship doctor, Dr. H. G. Wideman. "Doctor Wideman? Not Doctor Wideman of Perrysburg?" By this time I was shaking hands with him, as he said he thought he recognized me as I came into the dining room. During the conversation, Hubert told me to be sure to look up Bernice Snyder, chief dietitian, of St. Rose's Hospital in London.

After attending to the transportation of my baggage a party of friends and I took a trip to Paris by aeroplane. The pilot looked very familiar under his goggles. We heard him being addressed by the other members of the crew as Lieutenant Debbe.

After a safe journey above the clouds we landed in Paris after dark.

The first afternoon we were in Paris, we attended a tea given by the Society of Arts. Among the artists present was Edna Neiderhouse, who had been studying art for the past two years in Paris. We afterwards learned that the floral decorations were furnished by Helen Zeiman.

Stopping at the news stand on my way back to the Hotel to buy some home papers, one of the things that I read was that my former class mate Elizabeth Munger was giving a concert that night at Munich, Germany.

Going down the elevator that evening to dinner, Beatrice Bayer stepped in at the fourth floor and she had dinner with me. She informed me that she was doing journalistic work, in Europe.

After spending two months in Europe I sailed for Miami, Florida to meet the Governor. One morning the Governor and I arose unusually early to take a dip in the ocean before breakfast. One of the early bathers was Frederick Leydorf of Pittsburg who was spending his vacation in Florida with his family. Judging from the high priced car which he was driving, he evidently had made a fortune in the radio business.

In the afternoon while out on the golf links, I met Jessie Hoffman whom I later learned was a champion golf player.

After a short sojourn in Florida with the Governor we went through the Panama Canal on to Los Angeles. During our stay in Los Angeles we went on several shopping tours to replenish our wardrobe. We ran across Paul Weeber and Lee Neiderhouse who were managing a clothing store in the fashionable part of town, their clientele being mostly movie actors. Lee being a very good salesman sold the Governor a new hat. While talking about our school friends, Lee told us that Zelma Brickner has been staying in Los Angeles all winter as a private nurse in a home on Pasadena Boulevard in which Evelyn Friend is house wife.

PERRYSBURG HIGH

"26" in "36"

We left Los Angeles Tuesday for Portland, Oregon, at the season when the apple packing industry had just started. We called on Mrs. and Mrs. Bateman the owner of one of the largest packing industries in the Yakema Valley. Mrs. Bateman formerly was Hazel Snyder. They told us that Alice Budd was running a boarding house in Portland.

On our way back to Washington, D. C., we went through Denver where Howard Sattler boarded the train. We spent an afternoon with him on the train and he told us that Christina Armbruster was his private secretary in his office at Columbus, Ohio.

While at Washington, D. C., we stopped at Senator Frederick Driftmeyer's home. The Senator and his family took us to the Barnum and Baily Circus one afternoon to watch the performance of Howard Sheldrick who was the leading clown.

That evening we attended a large suffrage meeting in the Washington Hall. The principle speaker of the evening was Dora Plummer. Dora gave a wonderful address on Woman Suffrage and we were all proud to say that Dora came from our own home town.

The second night that we spent in Washington, D. C., the Governor was to speak at a banquet given in honor of Judge Schaller who was now making his home in Washington, D. C.

We had planned to stay in Washington, D. C. longer but the Governor received a wire saying he should come to Cleveland to attend a Conference.

In going to the Hotel Cleveland both the Governor and I noticed how careful the driver of our cab seemed to be. Letting us out at the Hotel our driver called me by name. "Well Vera, it's been a long time since I've seen you." I hardly recognized Pat Wideman in his uniform. Pat told us that he saw Velma Neiderhouse the other day on the street and she said she was teaching Economics in the Shaw High School in East Cleveland.

After being away from home for three months we were glad to get back to old Toledo.

The first evening we spent at home we listened in over the Radio, tuning in on WCAE. We heard a very interesting address given by the honorable Clair Parish.

During our absence the people in the flat next to us moved out and we were home almost a week before we found out that Charles Griss and family lived there. He told us that he had accepted a position at Rupp and Bowmans.

I went down town Wednesday afternoon and met Marian Beverly on the street. She informed me that the first basketball game of the season was to be played that evening. She has been the Basket Ball coach for the last two years at Waite High School.

Being very interested with what Marian had told me, I went to the game that evening. Here I met another school friend, Paul Cocanour, who was in charge of the boys' athletics.

When I left home, I never thought that I would meet so many people of my Senior Class. Just to meet these people was worth more than the trip to me. It brought back old memories of dear old P. H. S. in the days gone by.

PERRYSBURG HIGH

History of Junior Class

Two years ago we entered P. H. S.; and what a chattering group of "green Freshmen" we were. As usual, the upper classmen had an opportunity to ridicule us. Miss Clay successfully officiated as the able sponsor of fifty-six students. The following officers were elected to guide the class through its hardships of the Freshman year:

President	-----	Melvin Redman
Vice-President	-----	Dorothy Mandell
Secretary	-----	Vivian Fox
Treasurer	-----	Marie Wellstead
Reporter	-----	Irene Schober

"Truth is Green" was selected as an appropriate motto. However, they realized their conspicuous color, and resolved upon scarlet and gray as their class colors, and the red rose as their class flower.

In spite of the scorn of the more dignified upper classmen, they decided to entertain themselves at a Christmas party. Toward the close of the year the Freshmen and Sophomores entertained the entire student body at a picnic held at Fort Meigs.

On September 12, 1924, they resumed their studies at P. H. S. as Sophomores. Early in October they organized their class and under the capable supervision of Miss O'Brien they elected the following officers:

President	-----	Dorothy Mandell
Vice-President	-----	Eunice Hoffman
Secretary-Treasurer	-----	Marie Wellstead
Reporter	-----	Norma Harper
Associate Editor	-----	Jessie Reitzel

On December 28, they gave a party, exclusively for Sophomores, at the Grange Hall. All who were present had a wonderful time.

Then came the dawn of their Junior year. Joy! An assembly of their own and no extra flight of stairs to climb. Soon they summoned the members together and with their sponsor, Mr. Huffman as chairman, they proceeded to elect their officers. They were:

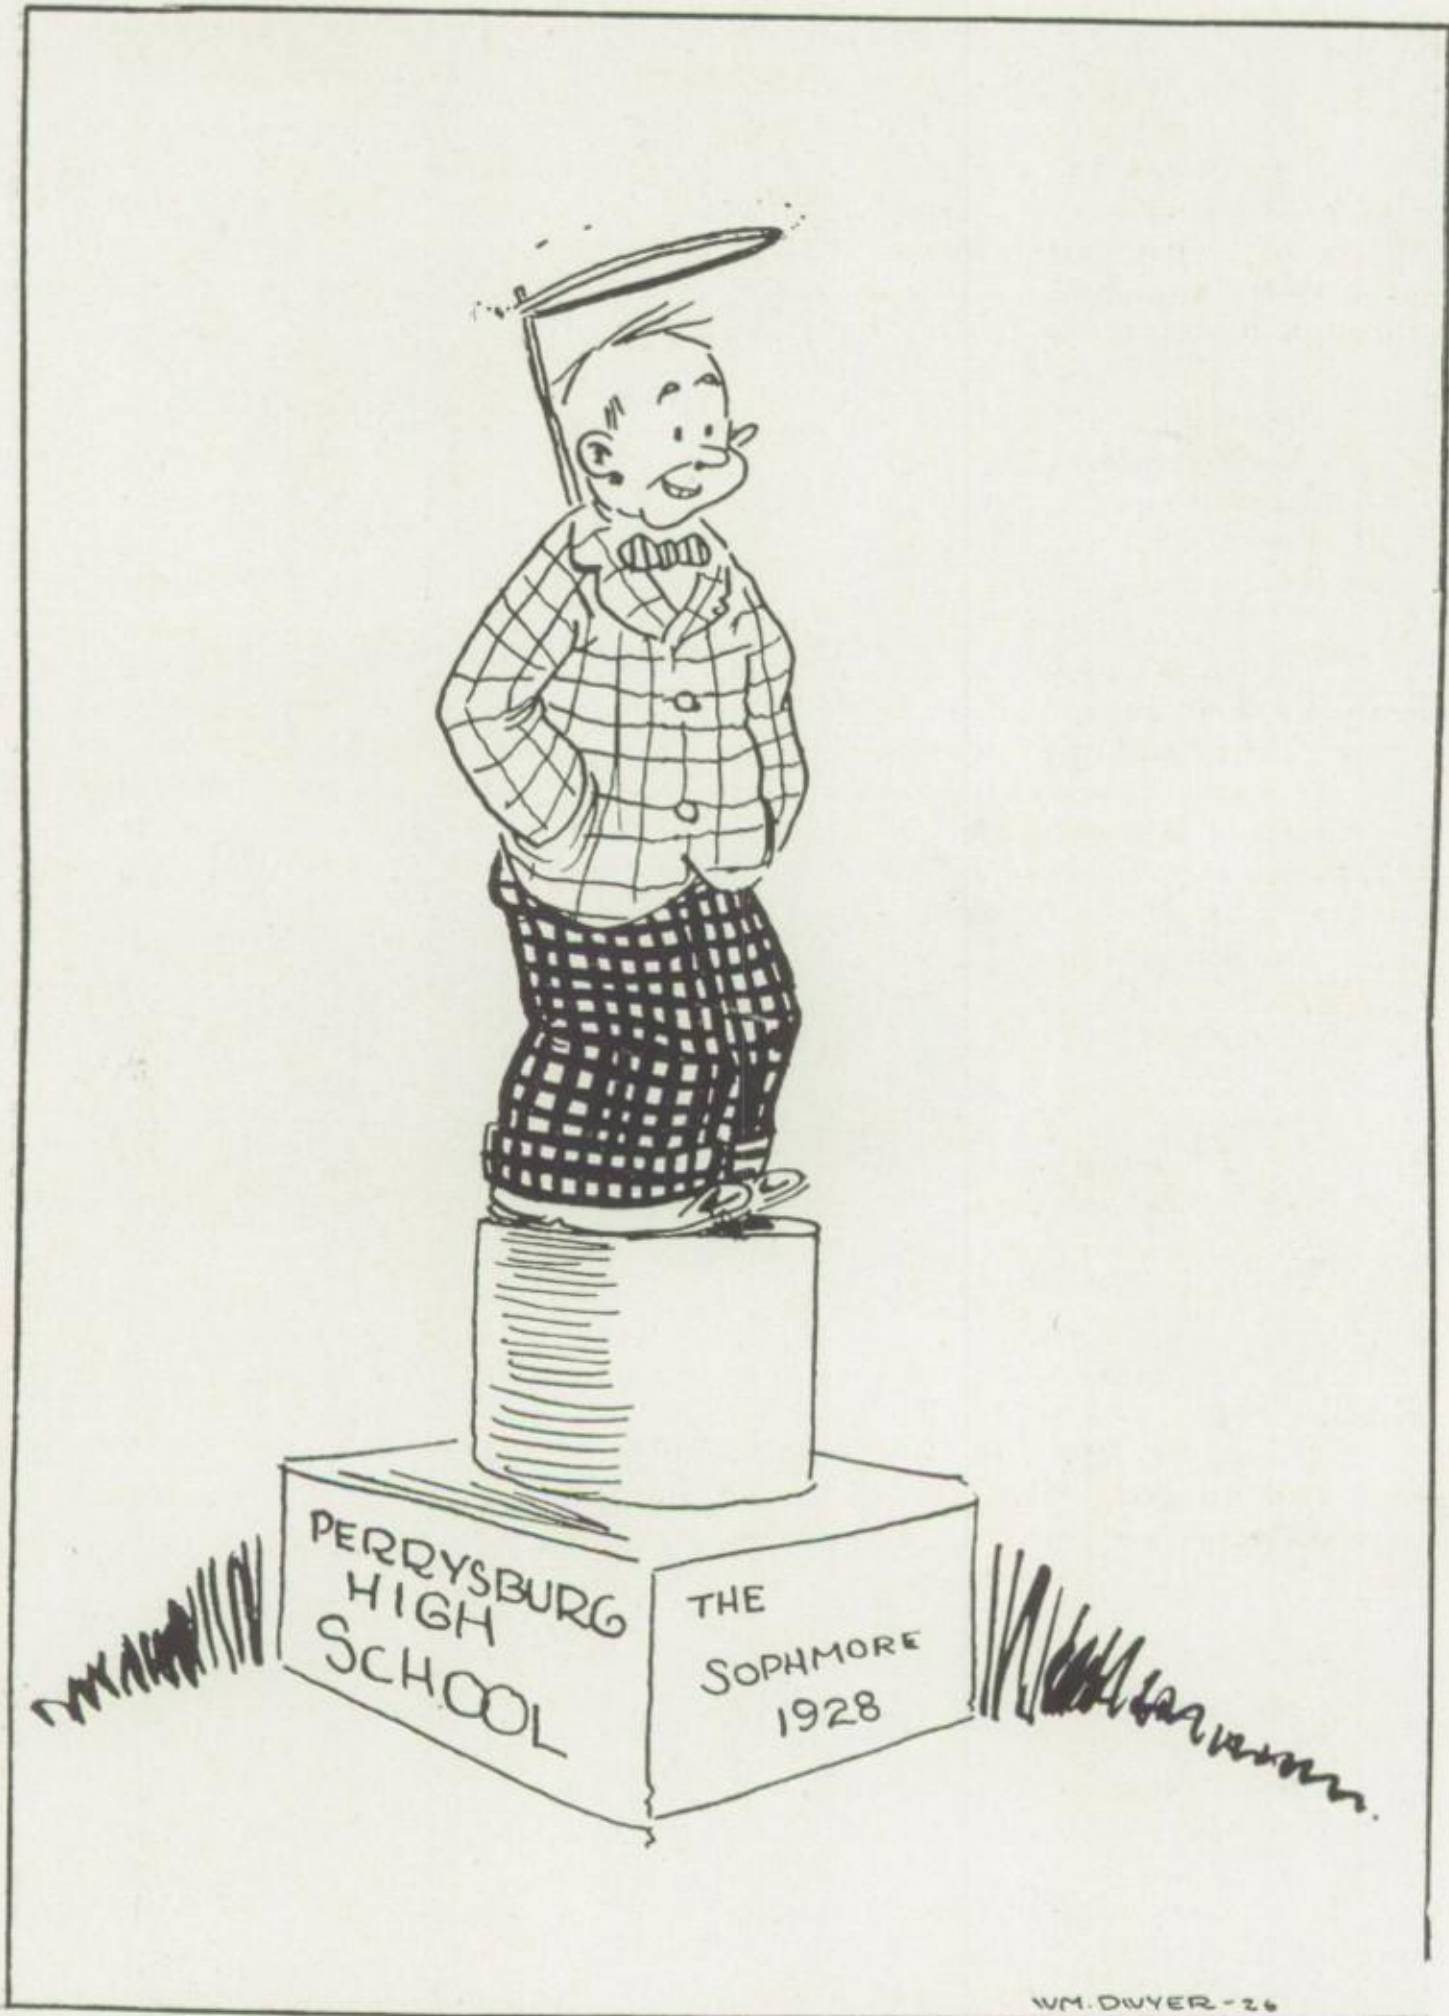

President	-----	Marie Wellstead
Vice-President	-----	Melvin Redman
Secretary	-----	Robert Witzler
Treasurer	-----	Ivan Burkhart
Reporter	-----	Norma Harper

The motto and flower of the preceding years proved to be the chosen symbol.

A Junior party was held at the Log Cabin and was a great success.

Early in the spring we decided to display our colors. We did so successfully.

Sophomore Class History

Last year the present Sophomore class entered high school as Freshmen, the strongest in number in the history of the school. A few days after school started they were called together by their sponsor, Mr. Scheld, and the following officers were elected:

President	Richard Kruse
Vice-President	Lucille Kazmaier
Secretary	Ruth Dwyer
Treasurer	Daniel Beck
Reporter	Eloise Luebben
Assistant Editor	Donald Craine

At the same meeting they decided to have "Work Wins Everything" for their motto; "Lily of the Valley" for their flower and "Orange and Silver" for their class colors. Although they were "green," they participated in many activities of the school. They furnished "bright lights" in both athletic and scholastic activities.

This year they arrived at high school somewhat diminished in number, but not in spirit.

By common consent they decided to have the same class colors, the same motto, and the same flower as they had in their Freshman year.

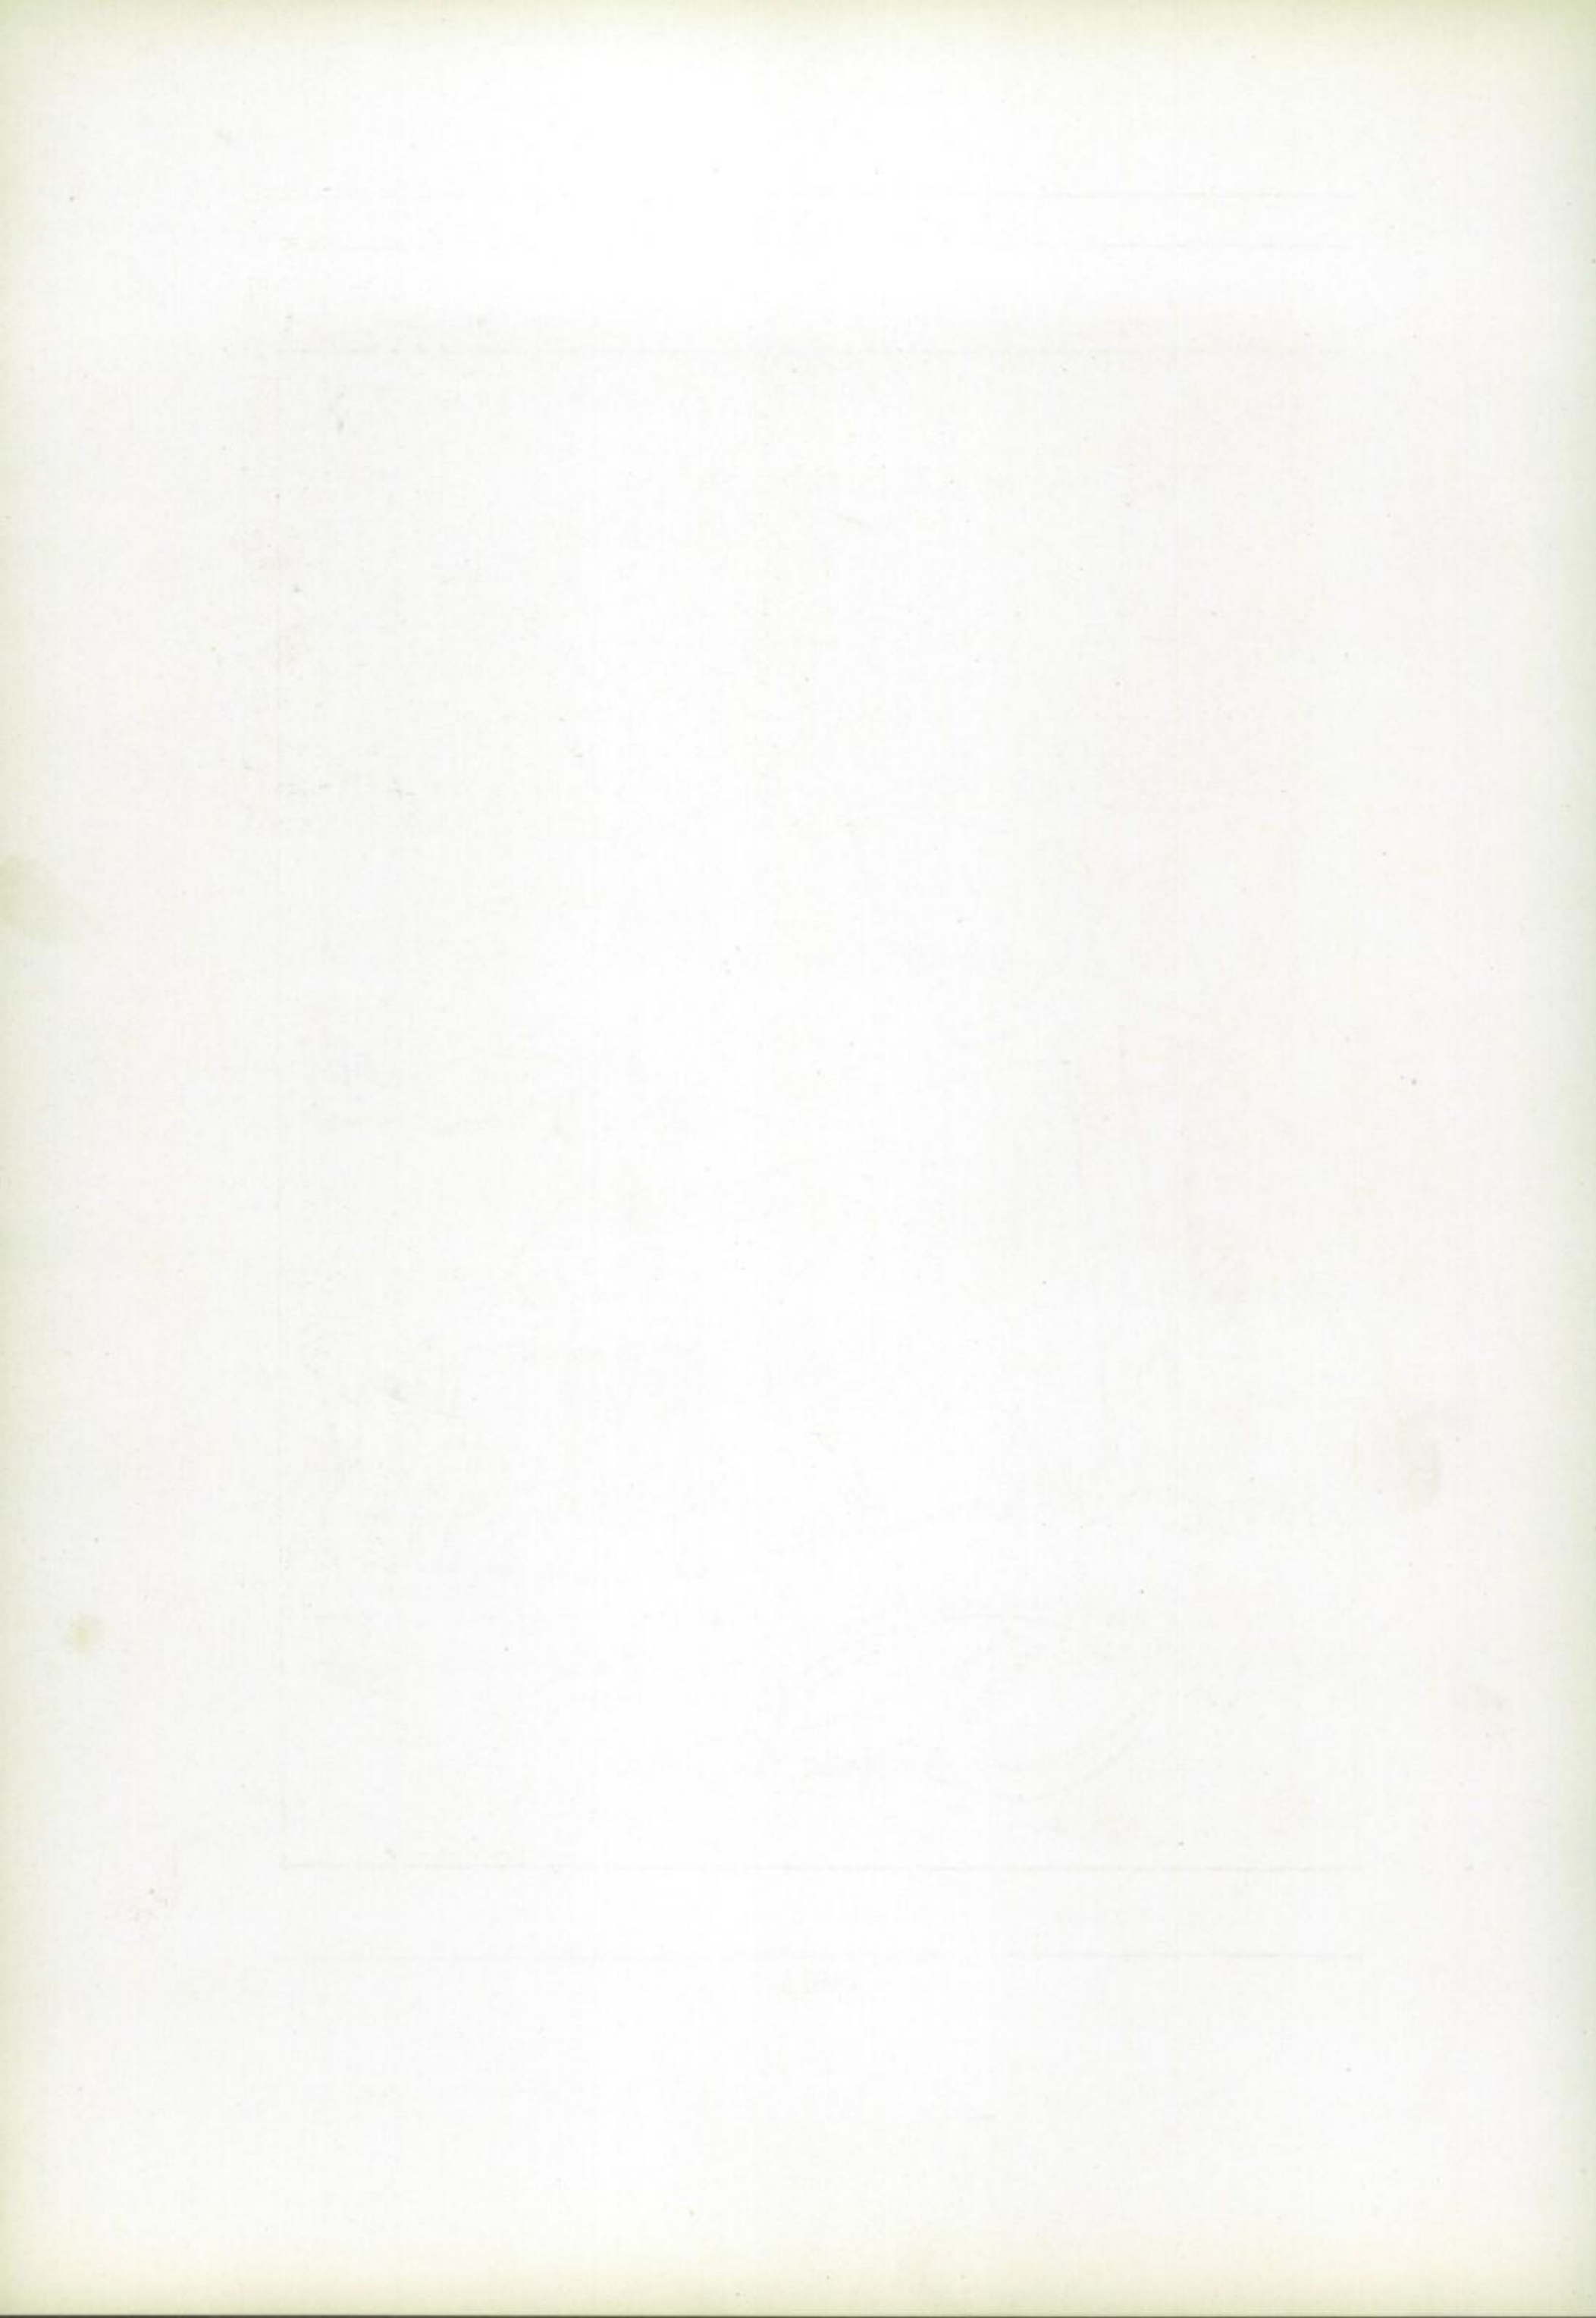

The officers chosen for the Sophomore year were:

President	Howard Kazmaier
Vice-President	Lucille Kazmaier
Secretary	Eloise Luebben
Treasurer	Daniel Beck
Reporter	Richard Kruse

They gave even more of their numbers to activities this year than last. They tell us that they intend to keep up this good record in years to come. "We wish you success."

PERRYSBURG HIGH

Freshman Class History

At last after years of constant striving they were Freshmen in P. H. S.

On this day, promptly at 8:30 o'clock, they were introduced to Mr. Scheld, whom they were told was to act as their sponsor for the year. They were such an exceptionally large body that all of them were unable to find seats in the main assembly. Some were forced to go to the overflow for seats.

As the weeks fled by they proved to us that they were not so green as we thought. "Mr. Honor Roll" increased with Freshman names, till at last 15 % of the entire class had made the honored position.

They elected at an early meeting, under the supervision of Mr. Scheld, the following officers:

President	Norman Sweet
Vice-President	Natcher France
Secretary-Treasurer	Helen DeVerna
Reporter	Grace Spreng

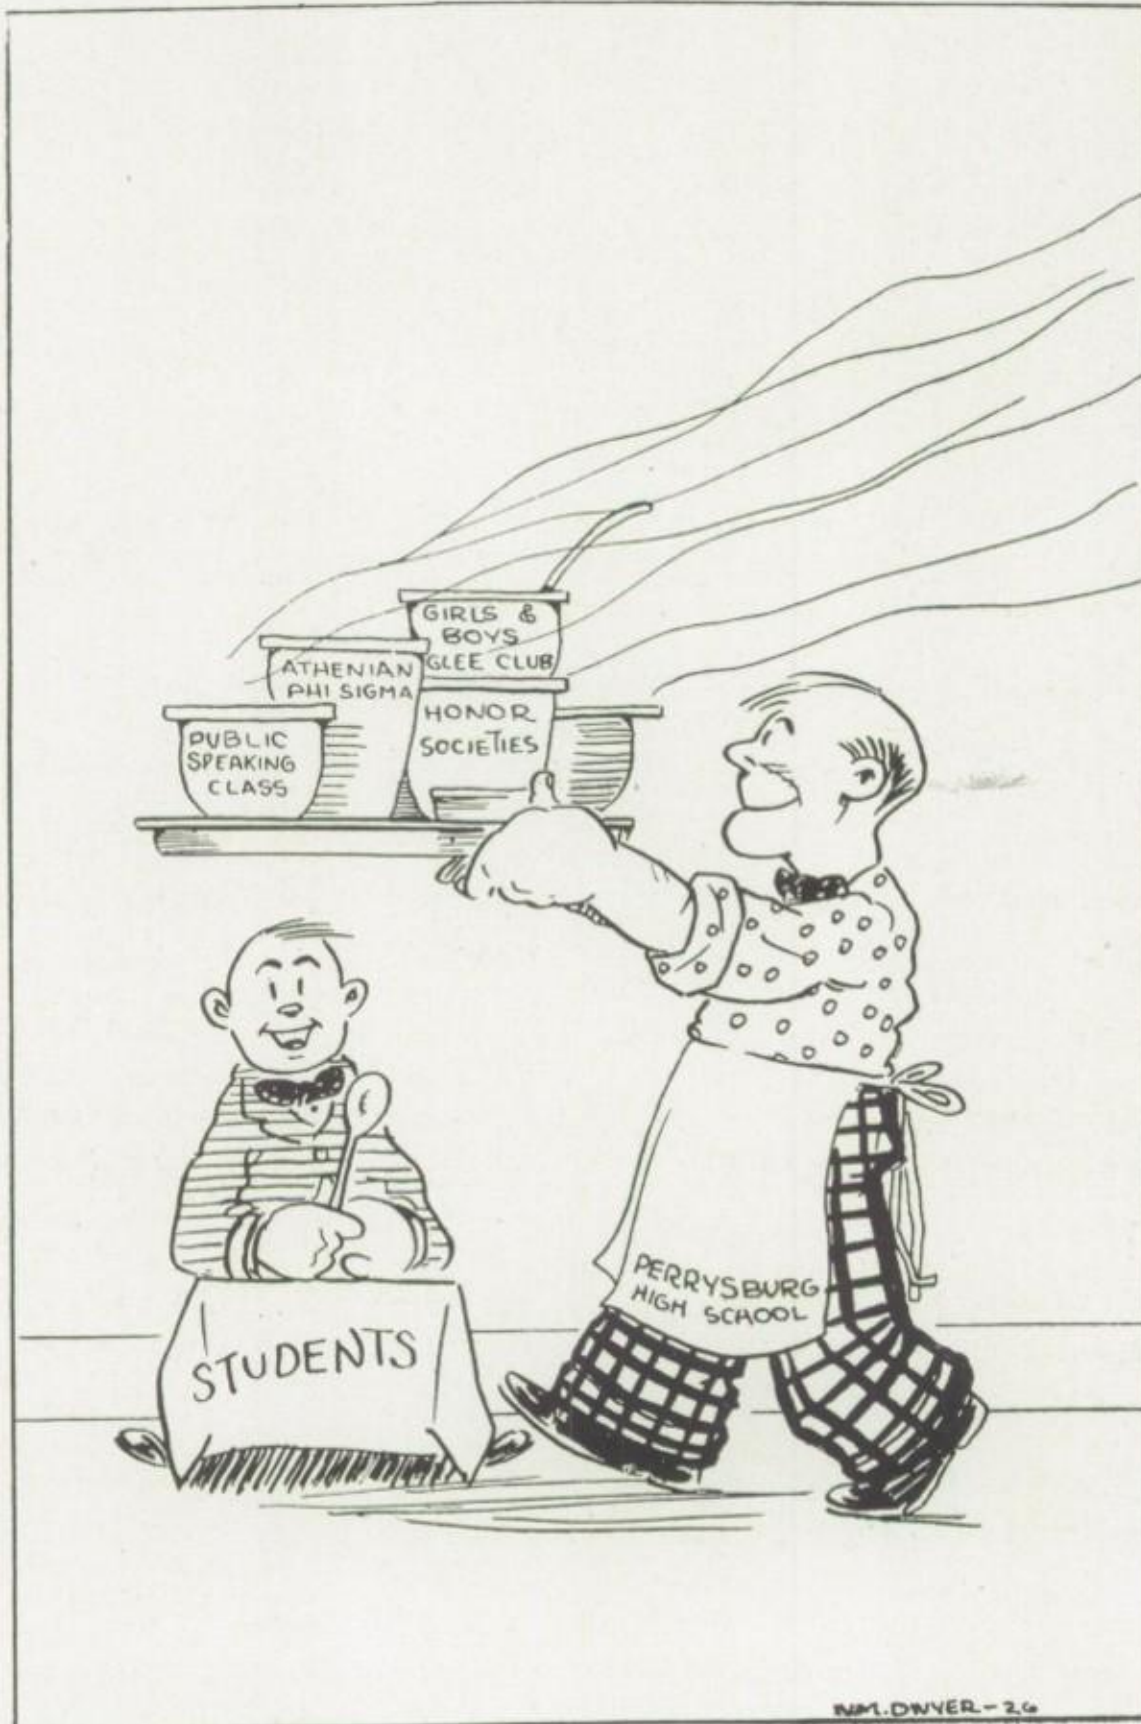

Football season found many of our Freshies on the field. They proved to Mr. Weinstock that they were well able to help carry the pigskin to victory.

Our Freshies also showed their stuff in basketball. Several of the girls made the second team, which is unusual in P. H. S. We are proud of our Freshies.

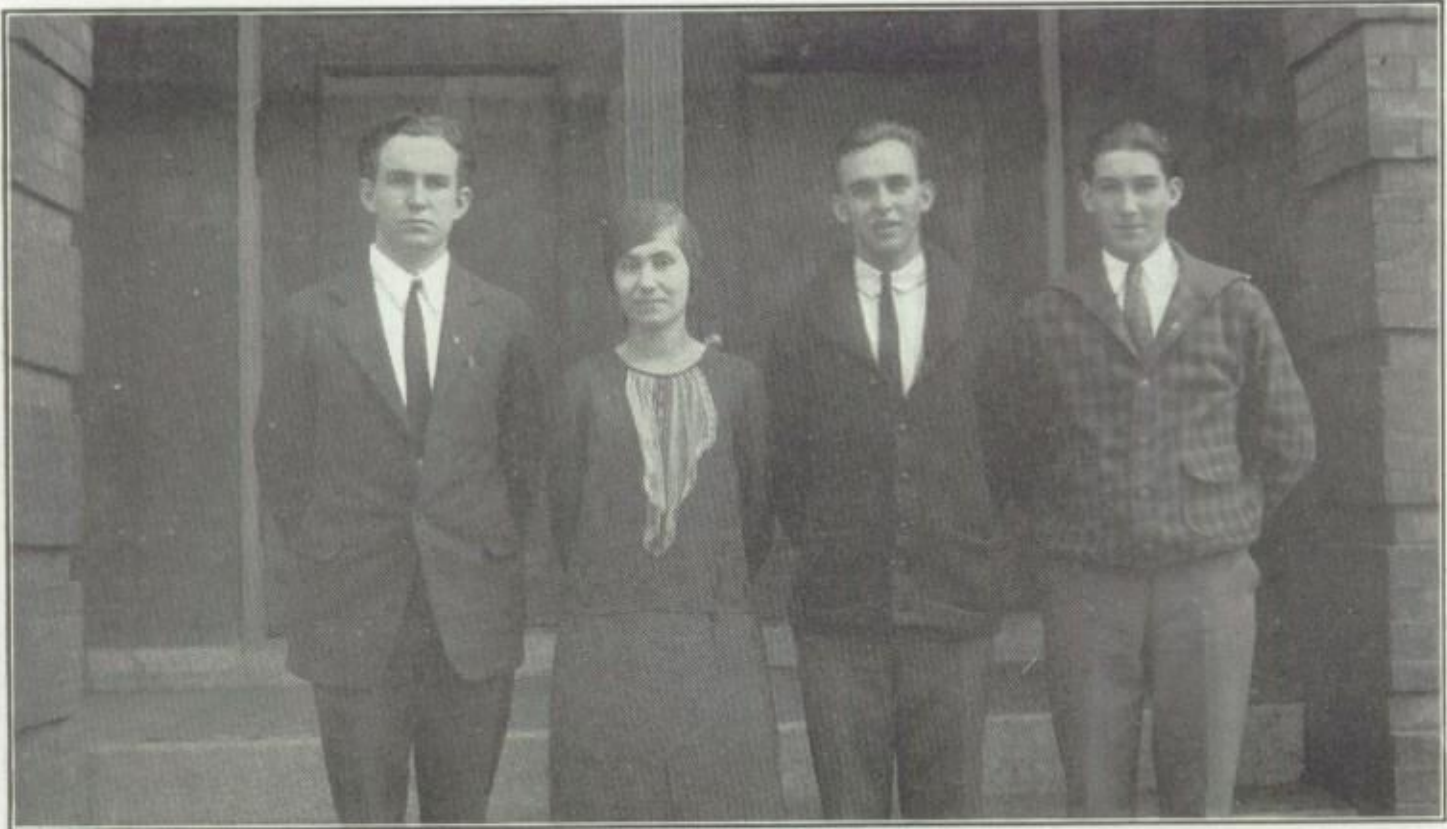

Most of the Freshmen attended the Seniors' Hallowe'en party. They seemed to have had a good time. Just ask their boys.

Although some Freshmen will drop out, as Freshmen are sure to do, P. H. S. expects to have a large and successful Sophomore class next year.

Organizations

PERRYSBURG HIGH

National Honor Society of Secondary Schools

A few years ago the National Honor Society was conceived and chartered by a few leading educators of the United States. The purpose of this organization is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students.

In 1925, Mr. Riggle and Mr. Treece made a careful investigation and study of this organization and after having convinced themselves that it was worth while, they applied for the admittance of Perrysburg High School. We immediately received admission and were granted a seal and charter.

In order to qualify for membership, a student must have a scholastic standing in the upper one-fourth of his or her class. Other things considered are service, leadership, and character. It is necessary for a student to have spent one year in the secondary school from which he or she has been elected.

The members who were elected from the class of "25" are:

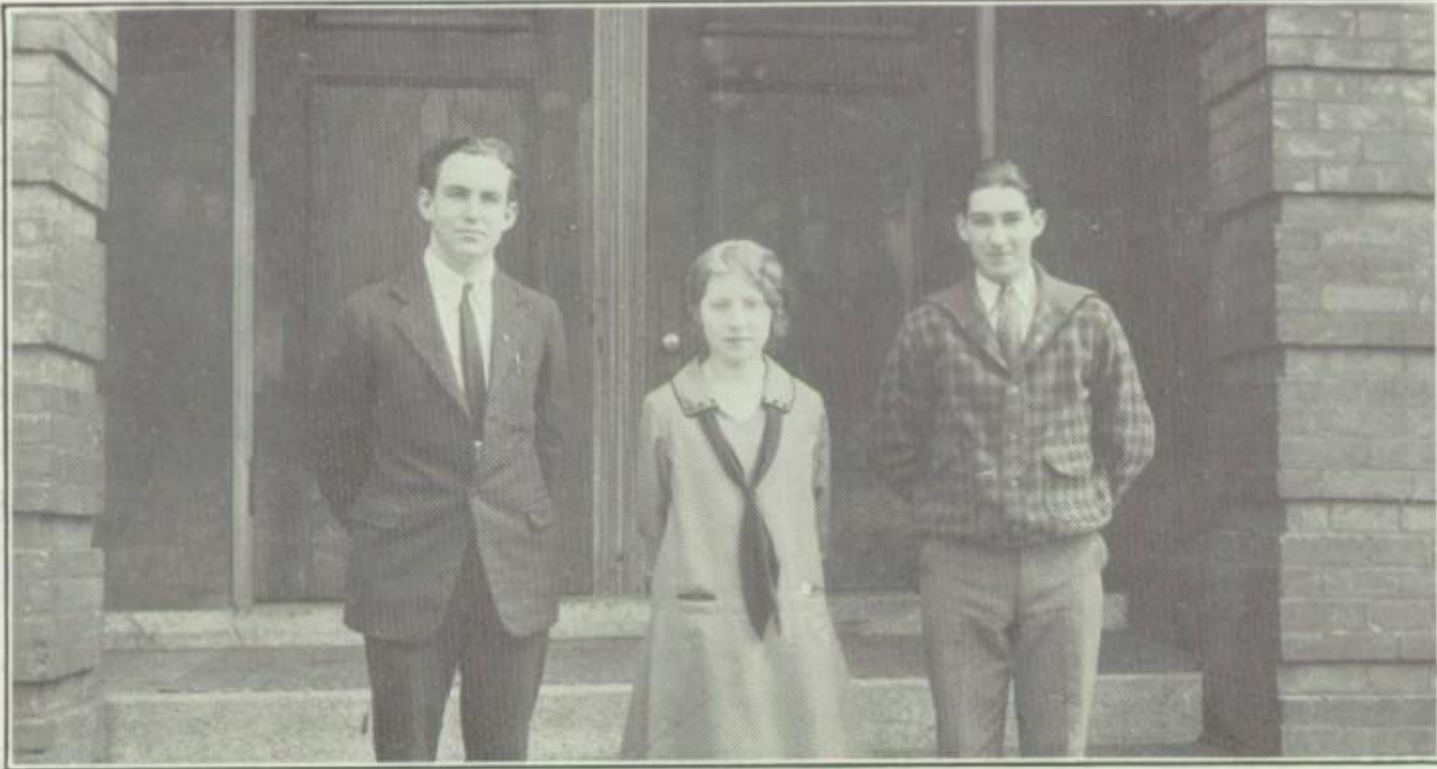

Imogene Kazmaier, Gertrude Braun, Eunice Davis, Dorothy Sutter, and Angeline Lownsbury.

Those elected from the class of "26" are:

Howard Sattler
Frederic Leydorf
Bernice Snyder
Frederick Driftmeyer.

"A little learning is a dangerous thing."

BLACK AND GOLD

County Honor Society

Last fall the superintendents of this county, feeling the need of further recognition of scholarship and leadership, met and organized the Wood County Honor Society.

All high school students of Wood county are eligible for membership, providing they have received a majority of A's and no grade lower than C during four semesters up to the middle of the Junior year. Those who have received a majority of A's and no grade lower than C for one semester may receive a certificate.

In electing students for the society, the high school faculty has the sole right to recommend students for membership. In electing members to the society it is necessary for them to consider scholarship, character, leadership, deportment, effort, and service.

Perrysburg High School was fortunate in having three who qualified for this society. They were:

Howard Sattler
Frederic Leydorf
Marie Wellstead

"Virtue is its own reward."

PERRYSBURG HIGH

Phi Sigma

One afternoon in early September the periods were shortened. Every teacher was eager to find out why they were shortened. At last Mr. Riggle strolled down the hall. Each teacher questioned him and each went away with the same information, "forming of societies."

We gathered in our room which was up stairs in the main assembly. After a period of three minutes' waiting, our faithful sponsor arrived, and with Miss Sandles acting as chairman, the meeting was called to order for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected were:

President.....	Frederic Driftmeyer
Vice-President.....	Paul Weeber
Secretary.....	Ruth Barbour
Treasurer.....	Helen Zieman
Fifth Member.....	Eloise Luebben

During the year a number of peppy programs were given. All of these showed our literary ability. Among the programs given was a joint program which we feel has helped to overcome all our antagonism. Also a society play, "The Laughing Cure," with participants from both societies.

The time came for election of contestants and those elected were:

Reading.....	Hazel Snyder
Essay.....	Edith Pope
Oration.....	Marie Wellstead
Debate.....	{ Bernice Snyder Frederick Driftmeyer (Alternate) Alvin Schaller

With these capable contestants we feel that we cannot lose.
 Thanks, Miss Sandles, for the faithful supervision.

Whiff! Zam! Again we started a new year with a bang. Although we were defeated last year we are not downhearted. It is only good sports who can fall in defeat and rise again to try to attain success; and with our capable sponsor, Miss Lownsbury, we cannot help but succeed.

On Friday, September eleventh, the Athenians were called together, old and new, for the purpose of electing officers. The officers elected were:

President_____	Frederic Leydorf
Vice-President_____	Howard Sattler
Secretary_____	Hubert Wideman
Treasurer_____	Howard Kazmaier
Fifth Member_____	Elizabeth Lucas

The programs given throughout the year were very successful and above the average. Not only have we shown good spirit in presenting our programs, but also excellent literary ability.

Spring drew nigh and with it came the annual inter-society contest. We chose our most capable contestants. They were:

Reading_____	Vivian Fox
Essay_____	Dorothy Mandell
Oration_____	Clair Parish
Debate_____	{ Elizabeth Lucas
	{ Richard Kruse

We wish to thank Miss Lownsbury, our sponsor, and our contestants for the effort they exercised.

Athletics

The field of sports was opened in September by the skilled game of football. The response to the call for men was fulfilled, although not as large as desired. Tell me, what is a better way of making a true sportsman out of your child than with good clean athletics? This is what the school board and faculty are for — TO MAKE A GOOD, CLEAN, HEALTHY MAN OUT OF YOUR SON, or if it is girls' athletics, they are for making A GOOD, CLEAN, HEALTHY LADY OUT OF YOUR DAUGHTER.

When there is a call for athletics or other fields of daily life, try to be the first to respond to the call. Wake up! Show the world that you are here for some particular part. Make your motto—DON'T GIVE UP; BUT KEEP AT IT UNTIL YOU SUCCEED. What do people care about a quitter in this world? They don't want him in their field of work. So don't give up!

ALWAYS DO YOUR BEST AND YOU WILL BE BETTER SATISFIED.

Football

September 25th to November 20th marks a successful season for our fighting team. It was developed from a group of sportsmen filled with the determination to do their best for Perrysburg High School. They were defeated only by one team of their class. That was due to the fact that our backfield had been weakened by the injury of one of the regulars in a previous tilt.

The Perrysburg High School football team has the championship of Wood county again, the second time within the last three years. The fellows played hard to accomplish this end, and all are proud to claim the championship.

Our boys played a team entirely out of their class this season. The game was played at Elyria on a field that looked more like a mud puddle than a gridiron. The Elyria fellows outweighed our light team and were all set to play on the slippery field. This put our boys at a greater disadvantage. Everyone enjoyed himself in spite of that fact that we came out on the short end of the score.

The big game of the season was played at Maumee this year. It was a battle from the first whistle to the crack of the gun at the finish, both teams fighting for supremacy. The game was played to a scoreless finish. Good sportsmanship was displayed throughout the entire game by both teams.

The following will help you to decide the ability of the boys who helped to bring honors to P. H. S.:

Perrysburg High	Opponents	Score	At	Date
13	Holland -----	0	Perrysburg	Sept. 25
20	Waite Reserves -----	0	Perrysburg	Oct. 1
7	Bradner -----	6	Bradner	Oct. 9
0	Swanton -----	0	Swanton	Oct. 16
13	Bloomdale -----	12	Perrysburg	Oct. 23
0	Elyria -----	46	Elyria	Oct. 31
0	Gibsonburg -----	3	Gibsonburg	Nov. 13
0	Maumee -----	0	Maumee	Nov. 20

PERRYSBURG HIGH

When the gun cracked closing the game with Maumee, seven of our fellows had played their last game of football for dear P. H. S. These are the ones that will be missed on the squad next season: Captain Paul Cocanour, H. Wideman, F. Leydorf, J. Charles, H. Debbe, P. Weeber, and M. Sprague. The undying efforts and the sportsmanship of these loyal supporters will be missed next year when the battle is again opened for supremacy on the gridiron.

The school is indebted to our coach, Mr. Treece, for the good work of the team and the time he sacrificed in developing a team that championed not only at playing the game, but also maintained the highest standard of sportsmanship.

Personals

Paul Cocanour—"Cokey"—Captain. He could open a hole big enough for a "Wideman." Men like him are needed on the P. H. S. team. We are sure to miss you.

Howard Kazmaier—"Soaks"—Captain-elect. Ask the opponents if he could hit the line. Two more years to go. Make yourself better known by making more opponents feel your drive next year. Hit them harder, "Kazzy." We extend our congratulations and hope to see you lead next year's team to victory.

Hubert Wideman—"Johnnie"—The man behind the line in the defense. The man to go through the line on the offense. He is another loss that we will feel next season. We are sorry to see you leave, "Johnnie."

Bertellis Anderson—"Pert"—With more confidence in yourself you can be of great value to the team. Step in and show the opponents some foot and head work. We are depending on you next year, "Pert."

Frederick Leydorf—"Fritz"—Few could get around his end. He was there to throw them for a loss. It will take a good man to fill his place, now that he has to leave us.

Howard Debbe—"Shiek"—Another end that was hard to get around. He fought hard to win and uphold the honor of his school. We are sorry that his name must be put on the Alumni.

Elmo Uthoff—"Red"—He was slow, but could make a gap in the opponent's line. He let them know that he was alive and on the job. He will be with us to worry his opposing man. Play hard, "Red."

Daniel Beck—"Dago II"—He is small, yet his motto is: "The bigger they are the harder they fall." He was always on the spot at the right time. Show them your "Dago spunk."

James Charles—"Fat"—He knew the game and played hard. When he stopped a man, he dropped him in his tracks. The team loses another good player that will be missed.

Paul Weeber—"Silent"—A silent man, but he could make the opponents feel the desire to keep their distance. You will read his name on the Alumni list next year and we will miss him on the gridiron.

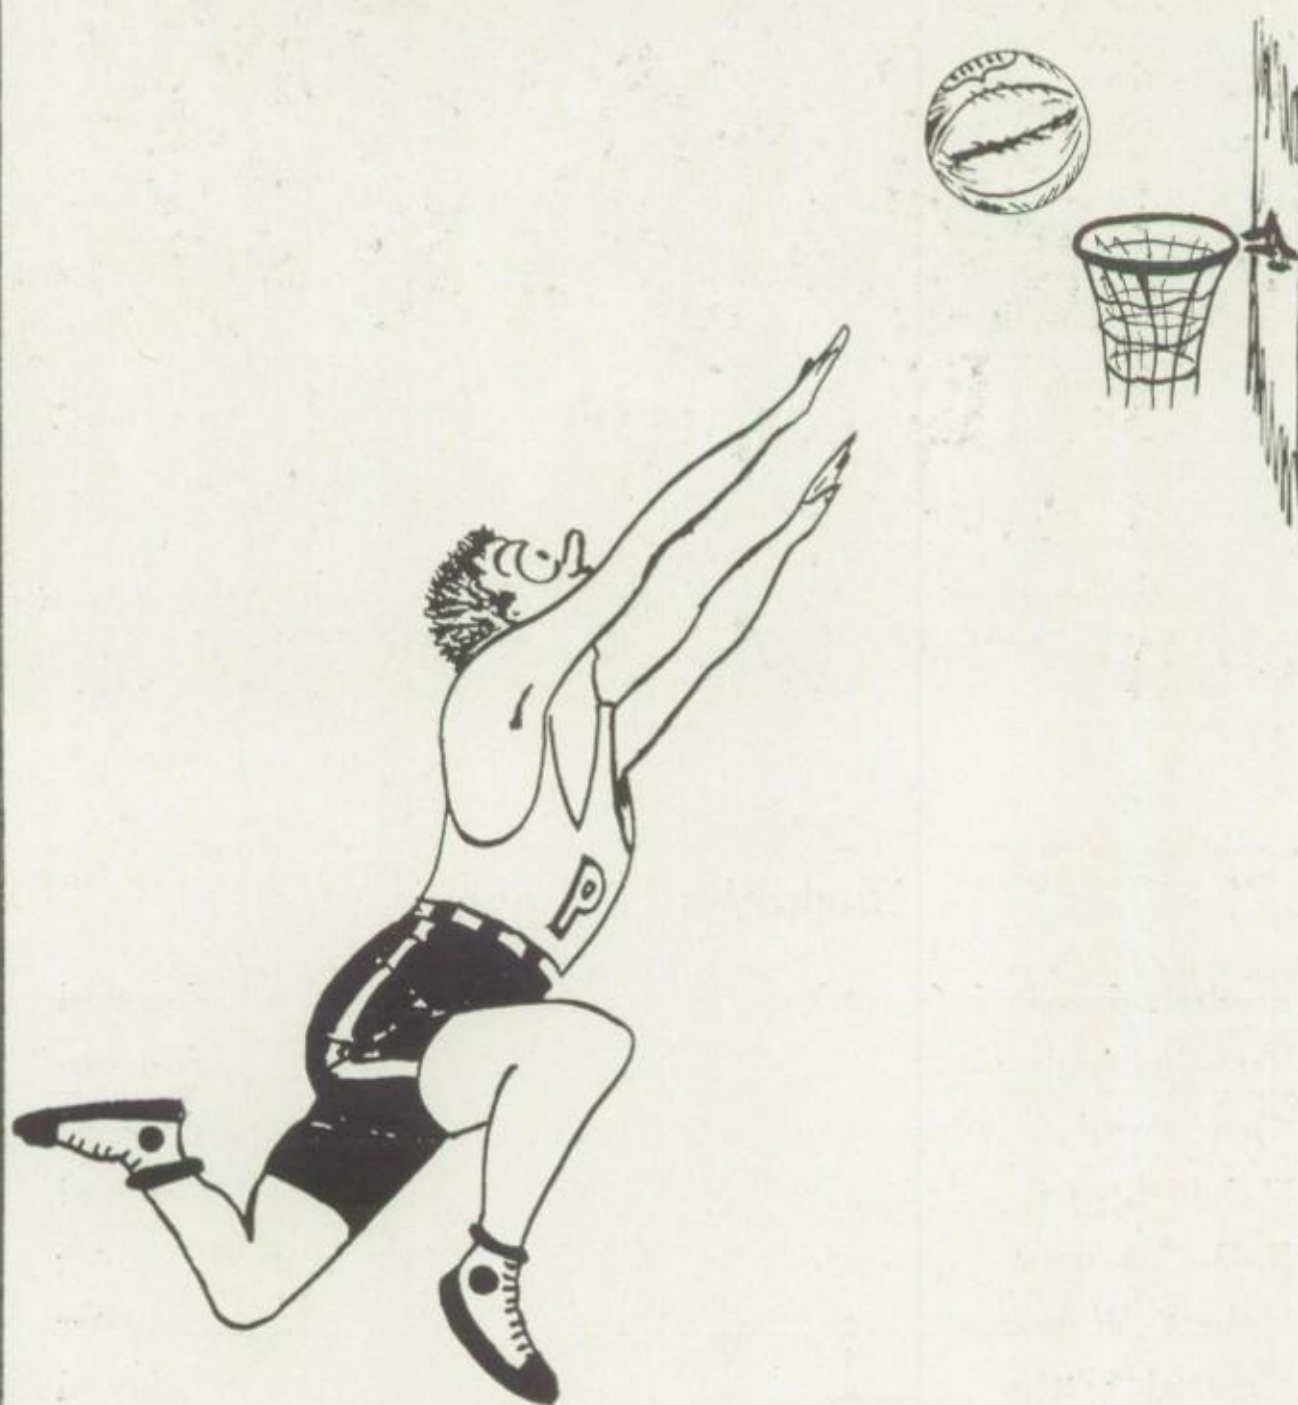

Leslie Gilson—"Fat"—A big man on the team. He filled a guard position. We are sorry you left school, "Fat."

Glen Charles—"Mutt"—His injuries kept him out of most of the games. Come back strong, Glenn, and show them how you can play the game. We will be with you.

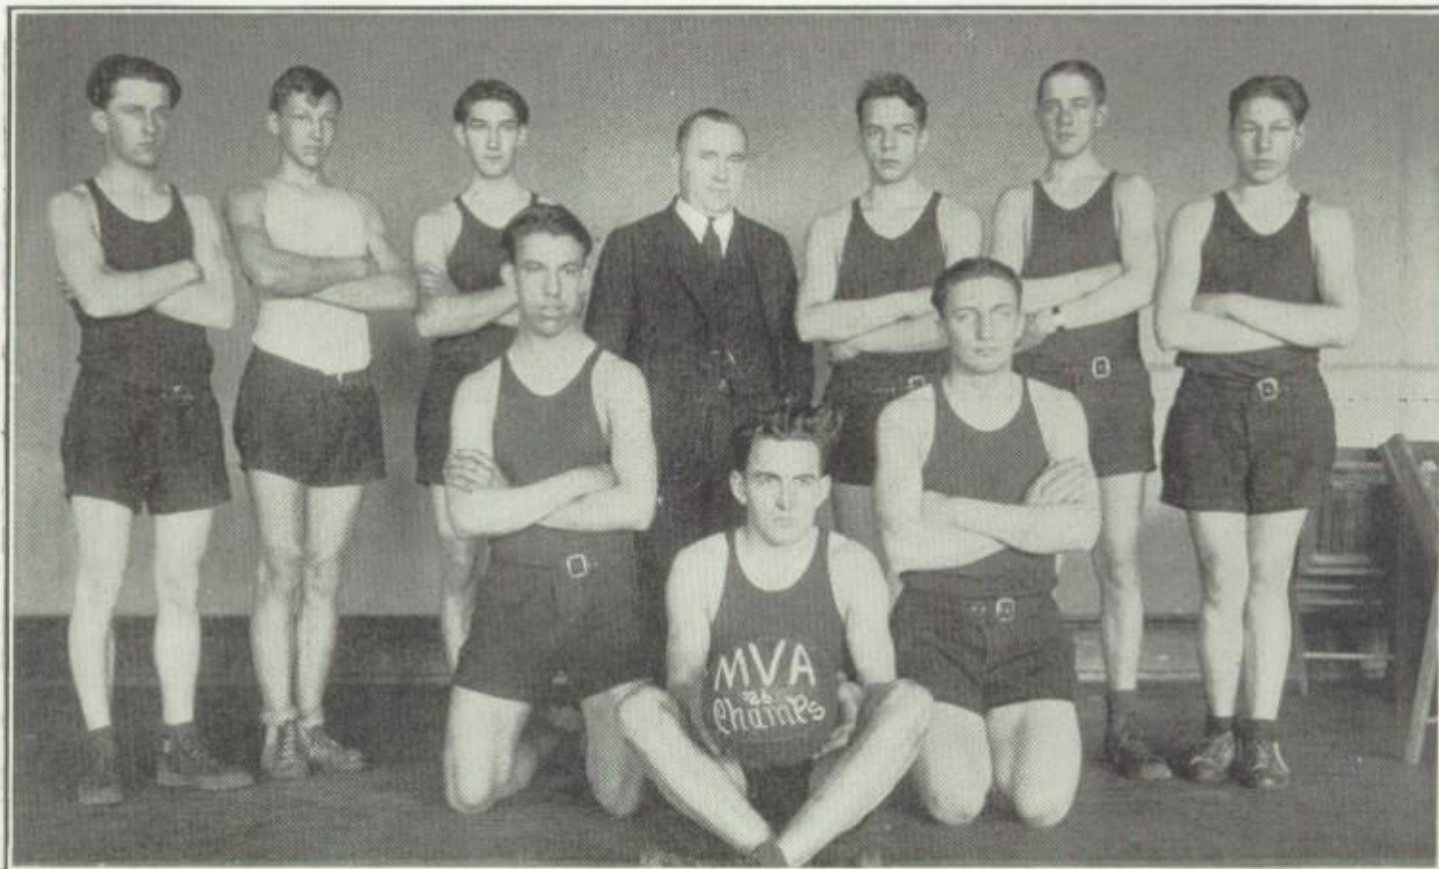

Russell Finch—"Chubby"—Our little back. With more experience you could have been of great value to us.

Coach Treece—He is liked by all. With the help of Mr. Weinstock, he developed another championship team.

Boys' Basketball

On December 4, 1925, King Basketball took the throne of athletics to reign supreme for three months.

The prospects for the boys' team looked promising. There was keen competition, keener than years before. Many boys responded to the call. Then the difficult task of pruning out began. It was not until after the first game was played that the first squad was picked. Those chosen to uphold the honor of P. H. S. were: Captain F. Leydorf, B. Anderson, H. Wideman, P. Cocanour, H. Sattler, H. Debbe, C. Parish, and M. Lyons. There were several players on the reserves that made it hot for these first string players.

This year our fellows worked hard in basketball. At the beginning of the season they played two games each week.

Perrysburg entered the Maumee Valley League. This was the first year for the league. Our boys showed that they were determined to win the loving cup. They battled their way to victory, losing only one of the seven games played.

The biggest game of the season was when Perrysburg met Monclova to decide the championship team of the league. It was in this game that the boys showed that they were in excellent condition and that they were determined to win by playing three strenuous over-time periods. In the third over-time period our lads rang up six points, thus winning the league cup. This is the first cup that has ever been won by a P. H. S. boys' basketball team.

The following are results of games played in the M. V. L.:

Perrysburg High	Opponents	Scores	Played
27	Rossford -----	23	Here
25	Maumee -----	29	There
22	Whitmer -----	12	There
31	Sylvania -----	11	There
2	Waterville -----	0	(Forfeit)
22	Monclova -----	16	Here

Scores of other games scheduled are as follows:

Perrysburg High	Opponents	Scores	Played
15	Cygnat -----	3	There
9	Bloomdale -----	8	Here
14	Cygnat -----	12	Here
13	Bowling Green -----	29	There
19	Rossford -----	27	There
34	Alumni -----	9	Here
15	Bloomdale -----	32	There

The boys are to be complimented on the fact that although theoretically they did not win all the games, they did win so far as true sportsmanship and fair play are concerned.

Personals For Boys' Basketball

Frederic Leydorf—"Fritz"—Captain. With few exceptions, he made every shot count. He always did his best for his team and school. You will be missed next year, Fritz.

Bertellis Anderson—"Pert"—A small man, but going good. Two more years to go. We expect wonders from you next season, "Pert." Step to it!

Hubert Wideman—"Johnny"—He never gave us a reason to worry about the tip off as he was always "Johnny-on-the-spot." He is big and could play the game. P. H. S. is sorry to see you go.

Howard Sattler—"Satch"—He was a dependable man. He liked long shots and very seldom disappointed us. He is another man that we are certain to miss in our lineup next year.

Paul Cocanour—"Cokey"—He knew the game and could be depended on every time. He played hard to help his team-mates win. We will miss him at the call for men next season.

Howard Debbe—"Sheik"—A fine guard, very few could get around him. P. H. S. is sorry to lose you.

Clair Parish—"Jimmy"—He had determination and never gave up. We liked his spirit. His place is left vacant. We will miss you at the next season.

Melvin Lyons—"Sam"—A good eye for the basket, but you lacked experience. You should be of great value to us for the next two years.

Mr. Weinstock—Our coach, who spent much valuable time in developing the best team we have had for years.

BLACK AND GOLD

Girls' Basketball

After a few basketball meetings were held, the prospects for our girls' team did not look as promising as usual. Five of our first string players had departed with the class of '25. It was evident that with only one veteran back the team would be made up of much new and inexperienced material. It was not until our first game was played that our coach, Mr. Treece, was sure just who the first string players would be. Those chosen to uphold the honor for P. H. S. were: Captain Jessie Hoffman, Edna Neiderhouse, Katherine Eckel, Jane Williams, Alice Chapman, Ruth Dwyer, Lucille Kazmaier, and Ruth Roberts.

This year a basketball league was formed among the schools which are situated near the Maumee River, known as the Maumee Valley League. The schools which were entered in this league were Rossford, Sylvania, Whitmer, Maumee, Holland, Monclova, and Perrysburg. It was decided that a large loving cup should be given to the best team. With this in view, our girls worked faithfully and diligently with the hope that they might maintain the standard set by previous Perrysburg teams. In the short time that they had to work it was practically impossible to develop a team of championship caliber and one that could defeat veterans at the game. The girls were compelled to meet stronger opposition this year than ever before in the history of girls' athletics in Perrysburg.

The following are the results of the M. V. L. games:

Perrysburg High	Opponents	Score	At
17	Rossford -----	22	Here
20	Maumee -----	8	There
50	Sylvania -----	3	There
53	Holland -----	9	Here
2	Waterville -----	0	(Forfeit)
12	Monclova -----	17	Here
154		58

The other schedule games and scores are as follows:

Perrysburg High	Opponents	Score	At
17	Cygnets -----	6	There
41	Bloomdale -----	13	Here
40	Cygnets -----	1	Here
20	Rossford -----	25	There
26	Alumni -----	19	Here
24	Bloomdale -----	16	There
Total 168		80
M. V. L.
Total 154		58
Season
Total 322		138

As the class of "26" bids farewell to P. H. S., it will take with it two regulars. They are Jessie Hoffman and Edna Neiderhouse. We are glad to see them graduate but sorry to have their places left vacant.

In leaving they bid farewell to their faithful coach, Mr. Treece. We feel confident that without his training our victories would not have been so numerous.

Girls' Personals

Jessie Hoffman—"Jet"—Captain. She was a good forward and could be depended upon. This fine Captain piloted them through the regular season with but two defeats.

Edna Neiderhouse—"Eddie"—This was her first year but nevertheless she developed into a great little forward. We are sorry to lose you, "Eddie."

Jane Williams—"Janie"—Her only fault was lack of confidence. This was her first year and she is inexperienced. We are expecting great playing of her in years to come.

Catherine Eckel—"Kate"—She was a wonderful guard and it takes an exceptionally fast forward to get past her and put the ball into the bucket. With another year to play she will surely develop into one of the "stars."

Alice Chapman—"Alice"—She was a very fast guard and did excellent floor work. She plays with all her might and we are glad to have her back again next year.

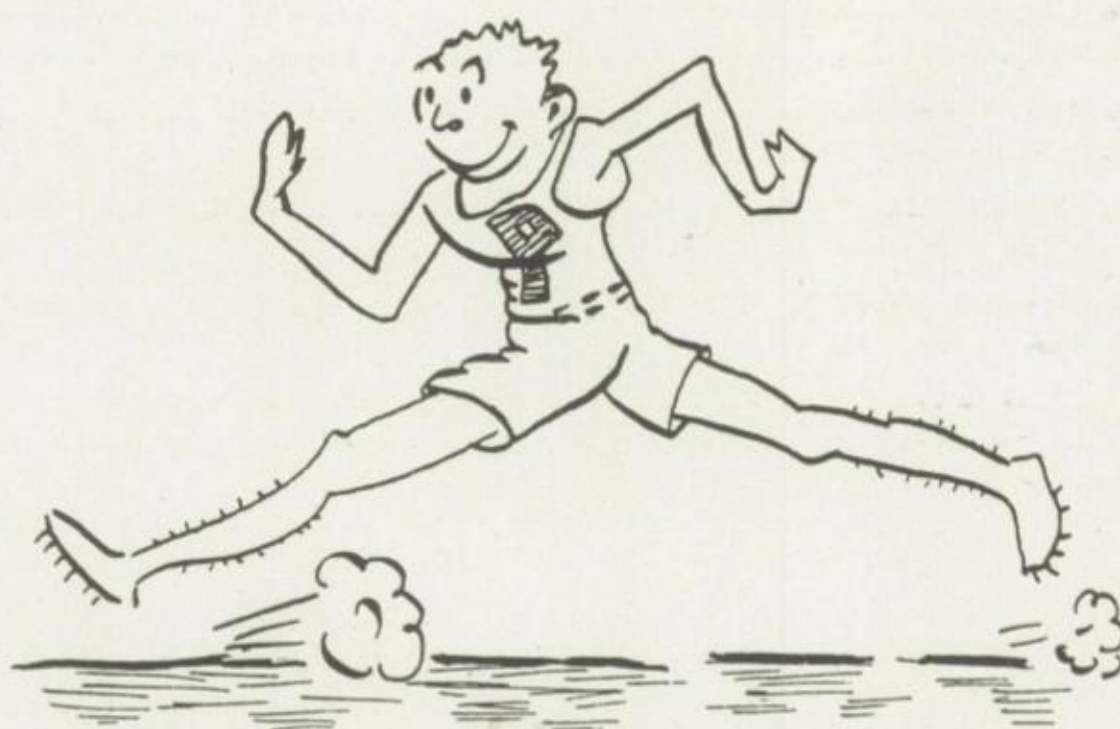

Ruth Dwyer—"Ruthie"—A little inexperienced, but she should make a good guard next year. Stick to it, "Ruth."

Mary Wiser—"Mary"—Mary didn't have the chance to play much this year, but we are sure she will make good next year.

Ruth Roberts—"Ruth"—Ruth lacked experience, but we are expecting a great deal from her in the next three years.

Lucille Kazmaier—"Lucy"—A small guard, but when she was put in to play the game she did her best. She will also be back again next year and should develop into a great player.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- Tues. 8—First school day. Mr. Riggle, "I'm glad to see so many bright and shining faces here this morning." (One hundred powder puffs brought into action.)
- Wed. 9—Freshman to the left of us, Freshman to the right of us, Freshman behind us, making noise like thunder.
- Thur. 10—Teachers hand out lesson assignments. Vacation is over, everybody get busy.
- Wed. 16—Seniors and Juniors organize. Somethin' staff elected.
- Fri. 18—Freshman and Sophomores play Juniors and Seniors. Freshmen aren't as green as we thought.
- Fri. 25—First game of the season. P. H. S. wins from Holland 13-0.
- Wed. 30—Somethin' to be published by Seniors. Watch for Somethin'.

OCTOBER

- Thur. 1—Where is everybody? (Bowling Green fair.)
- Mon. 5—Freshmen are still wandering into wrong class rooms.
- Fri. 9—Black and Gold defeated Bradner.
- Tues. 13—Mr. Scheld gives a sewing demonstration at 3:30 sharp. Only a select few admitted.
- Fri. 16—Another victory for P. H. S. Beat Swanton.
- Mon. 19—Pearl Frazier looks sad. Ernie left for the West.
- Fri. 23—Wow! That was a hot football game. Beat Bloomdale by one point.
- Fri. 30—Seniors give Hallowe'en party. (Freshmen initiated.)
- Sat. 31—Ask the fellows if they ever made mud pies. They had a good chance at the Elyria football game. Elyria's all right, especially the ten cent store.

NOVEMBER

- Mon. 2—What's the matter, Freshmen? Don't the results of the six weeks' test agree with you? Did you get A— or are you minus A's?
- Wed. 4—Seniors bawled out in Chapel for initiating Freshmen.
- Fri. 6—Hard luck, team, you showed them a good fight. Defeated by Gibsonburg 3-0.
- Thur. 12—Acting like winter, isn't it, Fritz? At least you got the cold shoulder.
- Tues. 17—Do we like Maumee? Oh! My yes!
- Fri. 20—It's a lucky day for Maumee. They're shaking yet from the scare. This game ends the season in fine shape. P. H. S. is proud of the football team all right.
- Wed. 25—I like the Pilgrims, don't you? Thanks to them, we don't go to school on Thanksgiving.
- Mon. 30—Gee! Everybody's fat, must have eaten all the turkey themselves.

PERRYSBURG HIGH

DECEMBER

- Tues. 1—It's pretty cold weather for winter, ay what?
Wed. 9—Howard Debbe selects a "cedar chest" for his "sweetie."
Fri. 11—P. H. S. defeats Bloomdale in a basketball game.
Sat. 19—Whose false teeth were those Mr. Treece found in his pocket?
Tues. 22—P. H. S. walloped the Alumni. Aren't we pretty good?
Wed. 23—Everything is "Hotsy Totsy Now." Senior rings have come.
Thur. 24—Dere Santa Klaus:

Were glad it is no near Krismas so we kin have a vacation. We need it.

P. H. S.

- Tues. 29—Juniors give a Christmas party at Log Cabin. "Very exclusive."

JANUARY

- Mon. 4—Ask Dick Kruse if Santa Claus brought him his new sweater.
Thur. 7—Tests! Ho Hum! It's a great life if you don't weaken. Most of us weakened.
Fri. 8—We finally did it! Did what? Beat Rossford.
Tues. 12—We have just solved the question on how Fritz D. got his "black lamp." The cork blew out before he was ready.
Thur. 14—Somethin' out! Buy one and support your school paper!
Fri. 15—Grade cards given out. Hats off to the Seniors who have 25 % of the class on the Honor Roll.
Mon. 18—Wonder why Miss Sandles is so sleepy? Just because Sunday night meets Monday morning is not enough excuse.
Fri. 22—My knees are shaking from the Maumee basketball game. They won by four points.
Mon. 25—Pearl Frazier decides to get a "wave."

FEBRUARY

- Thur. 4—The Seniors hold class meeting to decide on pictures for the annual.
Mon. 8—Mr. Weinstock loses his balance. If found return at once.
Fri. 12—Lincoln's birthday. Dale Lincoln Hoffman celebrates his second birthday.
Mon. 15—Now what do you think of our snappy quintet. Another cup added to P. H. S. collection.
Mon. 22—A day off at last. We wish more great men had been born on school days.
Mon. 29—Don't seem to be anything doing on this day.

BLACK AND GOLD

HUMOR

PERRYSBURG HIGH

Helen to Lee—"What is there on your hat that makes you so proud of it?"

Lee—"The eyes of all the other women."

Ruth Barbour—"That girl accepts rings from men she doesn't know."

Jessie Hoffman—"How can she?"

Ruth—"Has to. She's a telephone girl."

First Doctor—"I hear Clair is on his feet again."

Second Doctor—"Yes, poor boy, his creditors took his car."

Lee N.—"I understand that you played football when you were in school?"

Paul W.—"Yes, I was drawback on the team and half-back in my studies."

Robert Witzler has purchased some currant buns at the Senior Cafeteria, and was distressed at finding a fly in one. Returning, he made an indignant complaint.

"I'm sorry, sir," said Salesman Driftmeyer, "I can't give you another bun, but if you will bring back the fly, we'll exchange it for a currant."

Crossing the Maumee River—

Conductor—"We are now about to cross the Maumee."

Curious Lady—"Which side?"

Conductor—"Either side, lady; both sides of the car cross at the same time."

Mr. Warner—"Dick, where did you go last night?"

Dick—"Oh-er-I rode around with some boys."

Mr. Warner—"Tell the boys not to leave their hair pins and powder in the car any more."

.....

Mr. Riggle—"If you want your wife to listen to what you say, just talk in your sleep."

.....

Pat Wideman knows a girl who paints and she sure can draw men.

Mr. Huffman—"What did your wife say when you turned in so late last night?"

Mr. Scheld—"Oh! she was half asleep and thought I was the dog. When she said, 'Is that you, Fido?' for once I had real presence of mind, so I licked her hand."

Minister—"Young man, do you ever attend a place of worship?"

Johnny W.—"Yes, sir. I'm going to see her now."

BLACK AND GOLD

"Is this the first time you have ever been kissed by a man?" asked Howard S.

"Yes," she whispered. "What makes you so thoughtful?"

Howard—"Say, darling, you're going to be simply a wonder when you have had practice."

Albert N.—"I wonder if Prof. Huffman means anything by it?"

Calvin—"Why?"

Albert—"He advertised a lecture on 'Fools,' and when I bought my ticket it said 'Admit One.'"

Helen Richards—"I worked on the problem until five o'clock this morning."

Mr. Treece—"Did you finally get the idea?"

Helen—"Yes, it began to dawn on me."

Philip Sutter got an awful kick out of the show one night—he forgot his money.

Mr. Hoffman (in geography)—"Name some important things that we get out of the earth."

Elmo Uthoff—"Fish worms."

Papa Honner—"Emil, hand me that book on the table."

Emil—"There he is."

Papa—"Why do you say he?"

Emil—"Well, it's a hymn book, isn't it?"

One of our terrible tempered Seniors in a fit of anger broke the back of Caesar; tore the appendix out of Hamlet, and pulled the "Tale of Two Cities."

Mr. Treece thought he knew how to drive a car till he had a short talk with a traffic cop the other day.

It is reported that Charles Griss says his prayers once a year. The rest of the time he jumps into bed and says, "Ditto."

Fritz Driftmeyer was disgusted. "What's the use," he asked, "of having a typewriter, when it can't spell any better than I can?"

"An alien," says Dick Kruse, "is a person who is born outside his native land."

"I'd walk a mile for a camel," murmured a hungry lion, as he watched a caravan crossing the Sahara.

Mr. Treece—"Why is the springtime the most dangerous time of the year?"

Blinn Harvey—"Because it is the time when the bullrushes out, the cow slips about, the flowers have pistils, the grass has new blades, and the leaves shoot."

Alice Chapman (after having a tooth extracted)—"Oh dear! My head aches!"

Dentist—"Why not have it filled?"

THRIFT

The habit of thrift proves your power of your own psychic self. You are certain of your soul. If you are a thrifty person you are happy. When you are earning more than you spend, when you produce more than you consume, your life is a success, and you are filled with courage, animation, ambition, good-will. Then the world is beautiful, for the world is your view of the world, and when you are right with yourself, all's right with the world.

A local resident had just returned from Arizona and was telling how hot it had been there.

Why," said he, "it gets so hot down there that they feed the chickens cracked ice to keep them from laying hard-boiled eggs."

Mr. Scheld was trying vainly to quiet the assembly, when he said, "Every time I open my mouth, a silly fool speaks."
